Campus Security

By MARY O'SULLIVAN
Decree Staff

NCWC's campus security is on the job 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

The eight-man team is in charge of campus safety and security, fire drills, accidents and accident reports. They are responsible for checking residence halls and other buildings to make sure they are locked at night, and to unlock the appropriate buildings in the morning. Watching traffic and keeping the parking lots in order are also obligations of the campus security.

Contrary to popular belief, campus security is not responsible for escorting students from dorm to dorm. As stated in the Student Handbook, "Security personnel will provide escort service to residence halls for students working late in the library, administration building, gymnasium or Student Union."

When asked about this, Jim Van Roekel, Head of Security replied, "Security provides transportation to students from one end of campus to the other as a service. However, if the occasion calls for security to be somewhere else, as in the case of an accident, security will respond to the emergency."

There are four student and three non-student security personnel. They are Adam Slawski, Rohan Naraine, Rick Huskies, Don Humphrey, Lester Williams, William Wadsworth and Carl Miller, respectively.

There are two numbers you can use to reach security day or night. To reach security during the day, use extension 309. If you need to reach security after the R.A.'s. have gone off duty, you can call 977-7959 and reach Jim Van Roekel.

Mixed Drinks In Rocky Mount?

By MARY O'SULLIVAN

Will there be mixed drinks sold in Rocky Mount? This seems to be the $64,000 question.

At a thank-you-get-together last week, supporters of the proposal were very positive and making plans to reach their goal to allow mixed beverages to be sold at restaurants, bars and hotels. "The passing of this law would definitely bring in better quality chains such as Daryl's," said one volunteer.

Although their goal is clear, the many stages involved in getting there are not. The first order of business is to get enough signatures on a petition to put the question on a ballot. It will take at least 6,000 registered voters to sign before this can be voted on.

On November 6, the goal was to obtain 2,000 signatures. When asked about the results of this drive, John Merritt of Hardee's replied, "We have surpassed our goal and that was a pleasant surprise. We now have 90 days to get the full 6,000 signatures."

The final step is to get the voters out. "With a large turnout of strong supporters, we will get this passed," an enthusiastic supporter claimed.

Since November 6, the volunteers have grown from nine to 200, and is expected to continue to grow as the date of the February 2 deadline approaches.

If all goes according to the plans made, voting for liquor by the drink will take place the second week of May.

VFY Program At Wesleyan

By BRYAN CLAYBACK

The Volunteer for Youth (VFY) program is a program in which student-athletes create a friendship with a boy or girl from the age of 11 to 15 years old. Nearly 20 percent of Wesleyan's athletes participate in the VFY program.

The student-athlete gets to know the young boy or girl by going to the movies, shopping, studying together and going to school activities.

One VFY student director at Wesleyan is Daniel Wright, junior from Bunn, N. C. Daniel said, "I like to be there for the kids and get satisfaction by helping them."

Another student director from Wesleyan is Yolanda (Yogi) Walker from Selma, N. C. Yogi said, "I like to be around kids and VFY gives me this opportunity. It's a lot of fun, but also hard work. Also, I get to help others and meet the VFY national directors."

Wesleyan is one of 52 colleges and universities across the United States that participate in this program. Students interested in the VFY program should contact Linda McCarthy at 977-7171, or one of the student directors.
