

L. B. Heilig, Eunice Moser, Laura Doggett and Norma Dutton show mixed emotions with their watches in recognition of twenty-five years of continuous service. They were among 39 supervisors and office employees presented the watches for a quarter of a century with the company.

Watches were also awarded to the following supervisory employees who are not shown in pictures on this page and page four :

- R. M. Bundy employed since 1924
- Herman Clapp employed since 1925
- George Lewis employed since 1927
- Gaither Miller employed since 1927
- C. R. Wood employed since 1928
- W. D. Cornelison employed since 1929
- Joe Dale employed since 1929
- S. M. Hutton employed since 1929
- Clyde W. Briles employed since 1929
- R. E. Michael employed since 1929
- Jewell B. Rutledge employed since 1930
- Joan E. Whalen employed since 1930
- Luther A. Parker employed since 1930
- Robert L. Boyles employed since 1930
- Robert J. Adams employed since 1930

HOW ARE THINGS?

What goes on in our good land? Well, churches have 89 million members, and they contribute $2½ billion a year toward their work. Hospitals have increased their capacity 50 per cent in the last 20 years.

MR. & MRS. J. E. MILLIS

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Millis are being served at the buffet dinner of the office party. Mr. Millis, Chairman of our Board of Directors, was presented a silver tray by employees of the office in recognition of his fifty years of service with the company. The tray bears the inscription:

J. Ed Millis

A token of appreciation for the privilege of close association with a great gentleman and true friend for some part of his 50 years of distinguished service to his industry - his company - his fellow workers - and his community.

1905 - 1955

Your friends at Adams-Millis Corporation.

Our schools have an enrollment of 33 million, of whom 2½ million are in higher education--55 per cent more than in 1940. We spend $1 billion a year on our schools. We have more than 40,000 libraries, 2,500 art museums, support 170 symphony orchestras.