

Plant Four

Wedding bells rang for Elizabeth Ann Powell and Jimmy Norman on August 15, 1960. They were married in Chesterfield, South Carolina, and are now making their home on Dobson Street in Kernersville, N. C. Jimmy is employed in the Knitting Department of Plant #4.

in the surf at Carolina Beach where they vacationed recently. Also, in July, Claude took his family to Bear's Den in Virginia for a week-end of roughing it. The occasion was a retreat for the Willing Workers' Class of Hasty Baptist Church. Highlight of the weekend, in Claude's opinion, was the open air meeting held under the stars.

Frankie Bulla, also of the Boarding Department, recently vacationed with her family at Cherry Grove Beach.

Plant Six

Welcome back to the following employees of Plant #6 who have been out on sick leave: David Jones, Ruby Windham, Emma Dillon, Bessie Black and Rada McLean.

We're very happy for Estelle Parrish who has moved into her new home on Route #5. Estelle is a looper of Plant #6.

Imogene Weir, mender of Plant #6, has returned to work after a two-week vacation in Illinois.

Plant Seven

Claude Eddinger, supervisor of the Boarding Department of Plant #7, and his two young sons are pictured Mary Lou Cooper and Jack Tilley were united in marriage in a formal ceremony at First Baptist Church in Randleman on August 5, 1960. They are now making their home in High Point. Mary Lou is a pairer in Plant #7.

The only exercise some people get is jumping to conclusions, running down their friends, sidestepping and pushing their luck.

My wife treats me as though I were a Greek God. At every meal I get a burnt offering.