Strength For These Days

I and the Father are one. --
(John 10:30).

God is life, and we are alive with His Life. His life is our life, so we shine forth in renewed health and wholeness. God is power. The very power to be and to do all that we are potentially capable of being and doing has been given us.

"Thank You". . . .

Americans in London always remark about the "thank you" that is a part of the most trifling transaction. It's "thank you" when you buy a newspaper, pay a bus fare, enter an elevator, or inscribe your name in a hotel register.

The "thank you" spirit is less common in America. In fact, it is so uncommon that efficiency experts frequently recommend it as a device for attracting favorable attention to an enterprise, such as selling newspapers or operating a bank.

In our democracy, the "thank you" probably was dropped because it was thought to smack of servility. In England, servility is demanded from service men, tradesmen and servants.

Out of this situation a neat bit of psychology can be developed. Because the "thank you" is so infrequently heard here, it has an unusual good will value. The American is deeply pleased by any recognition that his trade is appreciated. He will walk miles to hear a head waiter call him by name or to have a check room girl acknowledge his tip.

Brenda K. Smith became the bride of P. F. C. Wayne E. Riggs on November 23, 1968 at the parsonage of First Wesleyan Church. She is employed in the billing department of the main office.
