ADMINISTRATIVE APPOINTMENTS MADE IN HOSIERY

Donald G. Lindner, President of Adams-Millis Hosiery Company, has announced the appointment of Jon S. Wallner, Jr. as Senior Vice President--Operations, and the promotions of Robert L. Boyles to Vice President--Manufacturing of the Men's and Children's Hosiery Division and Walter L. Voncannon to Vice President--Manufacturing of the Ladies' Hosiery Division.

A native of Jacksonville, Texas, Jon Wallner formerly held the positions of Senior Vice President of Manufacturing for Kayser-Roth Hosiery Company in Burlington, N. C.; Vice President and General Manager of Indian Head Hosiery in Paducah, Kentucky; and President of Magnet Mills, Inc. of Clinton, Tennessee. Married to the former Miss Stella Dalton of Virginia, he is the father of three children. The family resides at 3015 Berwick Road, Burlington, where Wallner is a member of the Burlington Rotary Club; he is also active in the Episcopal Church.

Robert Boyles has worked in every department of Adams-Millis Corporation's Men's and Children's Hosiery Division since starting in the finishing department of the High Point plant in 1930. In January of 1957, he was named General Superintendent of the Men's and Children's Division, with plants in High Point, Kernersville, Mt. Airy and Hickory, and in 1966, became Director of Manufacturing of that division. A native of Surry County, he is married to the former Miss Ann Garner of High Point. They reside at 313 Woodrow Avenue in High Point and have two daughters. Boyles is an active member of the First Church of Christ where he is an Elder and Trustee and Chairman of the Board. He is a charter member and past president of the Twilight Civitan Club; he is a twelve-year member and past chairman of the board of the Salvation Army Boys' Club.

R. L. Boyles

W. L. Voncannon

He is a member and past director of the Colonial Country Club. He has served as Noble Grand of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, as a board member and treasurer of the Family Service Bureau, and as a member of the board of the High Point Chapter of the American Red Cross. He was formerly a member of the High Point Industrial Management Club.

Walter Voncannon started in the finishing department of Adams-Millis Corporation's Ladies' Hosiery Division in 1934; he worked in several departments before becoming superintendent of the finishing department in 1954. In 1960, he was promoted to superintendent of the entire Ladies' Hosiery Division; and in 1967, he became Director of Manufacturing. He is a member of the First Church of God in High Point where he serves in various capacities. He is past president of the High Point Industrial Management Club and has served on the boards of the Red Shield Boys' Club and the Salvation Army. He and Mrs. Voncannon, the former Miss Juanita Kinney, live on Uwharrie Road in High Point; they have one daughter.
