

KERNERSVILLE PLANTS

"A trip to Israel and Egypt is a most rewarding, unforgettable experience that I wish everyone could enjoy!" These were the sentiments expressed by Clara Lambeth upon her return from a trip to the Holy Land. While there, she visited many unusual and exciting places. She had an endless list of things she saw and did--which included riding a camel. All in all, it was a trip she's not likely ever to forget.

The folding department is glad to have Kat Albert, Vera Beane, Barbara Lane and Macy Beeson back at work after being out on sick leave. Wishes for a speedy recovery are also sent out to Cornell Mabe.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Atkins recently returned from a week's stay at the beach. Upon returning, they were welcomed home with a new grandson.

Dorothy Kiger and Margie Eaton recently returned from a trip to Tennessee where they enjoyed seeing the Grand Ole Opry.

Others taking Easter vacations were: Elizabeth May who went to Michigan and Indiana; Lois Hudnall who went to West Virginia to visit her family; Rose Brooker who went to Florida to visit her father who has been ill; Kathy Marshall who returned from a camping and fishing trip at Morehead; and Bertha McLain who went to Alabama to visit with her family.

HICKORY PLANT

Geneva Lafone recently visited her son, Airman First-Class Kenneth Lafone, and family at Fort Meade, Maryland. She said she enjoyed playing with her eight-month-old granddaughter, Mindy.

Hickory employees who vacationed in Florida recently were Judy Bolick and Sue Sigmon. Sue went to see the Daytona 500 while there.

Welcome back to Debbie Bengel! The boarding department really missed her.

Pauline McCarter recently attended the Azalea Festival at Wilmington, N. C. She reports that it was just beautiful.

EDMOND PLANTS

Vacation time is in full swing in the Oklahoma plants. Charles and Louise Tuttle went to Hawaii. Parker Winton visited relatives in Nebraska.

Tony Winton and family visited Houston, Texas. Tony is supervisor in the knitting department.

John Wile, of quality control visited relatives in Bartlesville, Oklahoma.

John Gullett, warehouse supervisor, and Don Moore of Data Processing took a week of their vacation at home as they explained "to enjoy a much needed rest."

Welcome back from sick leave to Retha West, Sarah Guerin, and Mary Roberts.

Yarn Division

A-M TEXTURING--High Point

Four boys in the service department are graduating in June--three from Trinity High School and one from Andrews High School in High Point. Levander Perkins is the Andrews graduate; Charles Riehs, James Welborn, and Billy Bishop are from Trinity Senior High. Riehs and Bishop joined other classmates on a senior trip to Washington, D. C.

Gail Agner and Terri Keever have been promoted from coning to inspecting. Gail has taken the honor of replacing Sally Spivey on the Safety Committee.

The month of March 1974 was the first month the texturing plant operated without an on-the-job accident. Employees were given free coffee and doughnuts for this achievement.

Virginia Wagner and her husband took a trip to Orlando, Florida recently.

The film "On Every Hand", devoted to prevention of hand injuries, was shown to all employees in April.

First-shift texturing operators at A-M Texturing and Dyeing attained a record low in absenteeism of 1.45% during the week of Easter.

Rinda Majors is sporting a new car--a birthday present from her husband. Shirley Bennett also has a new car--a gift from her husband.

Best of all with the new is the new home of Lillie Queen.

Rodney Rudd and Annie Davis are the new members of the Safety Committee from the first shift.

It's nice to have Bernice Younger back at work after being out due to illness.

Jeanne King is all smiles with her new engagement ring.

Joyce Barefoot is also back at work after absence due to illness.