

COMMISSIONER MAKES AWARDS

North Carolina Commissioner of Labor W. C. Creel recently presented safety awards to the main office in High Point, to Adams-Millis Hosiery Company's knitting plant in Kernersville, the hosiery plant in Hickory and the ladies' hosiery plant in High Point. The awards were for outstanding achievements in accident prevention for the year 1973.

Supervisors from Adams-Millis Hosiery Company's knitting plant in Kernersville are pictured above with their safety award. Seated left to right, are Jerry Smith and John Vanhoy; and standing, left to right, are Bob Leonard and Grady Cox.

Special recognition went to the Hickory plant and the main office for working the entire year without a lost-time injury; this was the fifth consecutive year the main office qualified for this award. The Kernersville knitting plant and the ladies' hosiery plant in High Point qualified for awards for having reduced their lost-time accident frequency last year.

The awards were presented at dinners sponsored by the Hickory and High Point Chambers of Commerce.

R. E. Sears, superintendent of Adams-Millis Hosiery Company's plant in Hickory, received their safety award from Commissioner of Labor Billy Creel.

Don Williard, superintendent of the greige goods department of the Ladies' Hosiery Division in High Point, received their award from Commissioner of Labor Billy Creel.

Some fellows stay right in the rut
While others head the throng.
All men may be born equal but--
They don't stay that way long.
There is many a man with a gallant air,
Goes galloping to the fray;
But the valuable man is the man who's there
When the smoke has cleared away.
Some "don't get nuthin' out of life"
But when their whines begin,
We often can remind them that
They "don't put nothin' in."
