

Harold R. Yount

Retired employee of Adams-Millis Hosiery Company, Hickory, and husband of Emma S. Yount, Adams-Millis Hosiery Company, Hickory.

Robert Huffman

Father of Florine and Thelma Huffman, Adams-Millis Hosiery Company, Hickory.

Frank Abernathy

Brother of Bob Abernathy, Adams-Millis Hosiery Company, Hickory.

Steven Campbell

Son of Mattie Campbell, Ladies' Hosiery Division, Adams-Millis Hosiery Company, High Point.

Mrs. Flora Tuttle

Mother of Charles Tuttle, Adams-Millis Hosiery Company, Edmond, Oklahoma.

TWO EMPLOYEES SUCCUMB

A. Willard Wright, fixer in the Ladies' Hosiery Division of Adams-Millis Hosiery Company, died unexpectedly at his home on August 3. He had been with the company intermittently since 1956.

Willard was born in Davidson County, the son of Arthur F. and Alma Lambeth Wright, and had been a resident of High Point for 40 years. He was married to Edith King, who survives of the home, 2305 Williams Avenue, High Point. Surviving in addition to his wife are one daughter, Mrs. Garry Smithwick of Falls Church, Va.; one step-son, Robert Charles Bergeron of High Point; seven grandchildren; two sisters; and four brothers.

Rachel B. Jones, off-grade handler in the Hosiery Division's Kernersville plants, died unexpectedly at her home on May 22.

A native of North Wilkesboro, Rachel was employed in the High Point Half-Hose Division until 1961 when she transferred to the Kernersville plants.

She is survived by her husband, Raymond Franklin Jones, and two children, all of the home, Route 13, Greensboro, N. C.

Better to do a little expertly than to do a great deal badly.

Retirees

(continued from page 5)

Grace Everhart, employee of plant one of the Hosiery Division in High Point since 1946, is retiring due to physical disability. She had been disabled since February of 1974.

Everhart

Grace worked in the seaming department where she operated an automatic clipping machine. She had also been an inspector and mender. She lives at 306 Gatewood Avenue, High Point.

CLARA LAMBETH

After almost twenty years of service in the finishing department of the J. Ed Millis Hosiery finishing plant in Kernersville, Clara Lambeth has retired on the basis of age.

Her work with the company has been primarily in the finishing department, "getting up extra pairs for the folders." Prior to her employment with Adams-Millis, she was employed by Silver Knit Hosiery Company in High Point.

Clara was born in Yadkin County, but at an early age, she moved with her family of three brothers to Durham. The family later moved to Kernersville where Clara has since made her home.

She plans a quiet retirement, doing house work and some traveling. She resides with her mother at 115 Oak Street in Kernersville where she is an active member of Gospel Light Baptist Church.

Ruby B. Conoly, spooler at the Raeford plant of TexElastic Corporation, has retired on the basis of age. She has worked for the company since October of 1952, first with Uniroyal, Inc. and then with TexElastic when they acquired the plant in 1969.

Conoly

Ruby was married to the late James Lawrence Conoly who died in 1952. There were five children, all of whom are now married.

On her retirement, Ruby's co-workers presented to her a silver tray with wishes that her retirement days be filled with happiness.

The mouth is the doorway to the mind. Open it to expose only the best mental parts.