

AGAIN — The operators did it again! Sent out an SOS for John Kendrick, dungaree department machinist, to come up and do some urgent work, no matter whether it was lunch time or not. John came and was promptly decorated with a corsage displaying a baby rattle, teething ring, etc., and then was escorted to a table piled high with gifts. In the picture, Bill Lehman, who is an old hand at being a father, is at John's left giving him some masculine support while he opened enough gifts to make him exclaim, "It'll have to be twins." More experienced persons, viewing the gifts, said nothing less than triplets could make full use of all the gifts.

her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johannsen from Detroit. They spent about ten days of their vacation here with Joan and Bill.

Helen Hughes and her husband recently took a week-end trip to Skyland Drive, Virginia.

Nancy Wade and Peggy Stewart spent an enjoyable week-end in Pilot Mountain.

Anvil Brand was well represented at the recent ice revue in Raleigh. Going down to see Sonja Henie and others perform were: Joyce Chapman and her husband with a group of friends, Shirley Pierce and Joan Spoon, Oleen Kid with her husband, Joe and son, Jerry, Moselle Boyles, Anne Welch and Earl Poole.

Moselle Boyles attended the State Fair in Raleigh recently. Also attending the Fair was Jo Albertson.

Overall

By

Virginia

Beal

We are glad to have Catherine Sheppard back with us after being out for the past few years.

Ethel Sanders spent the weekend in Charlotte with her daughter, Mrs. P. S. Mason, her granddaughter, Mrs. Don Brown, also of Charlotte, and also visited another granddaughter, Mrs. Ralph Farrar in Gastonia.

Mae Rumsey and friends visited in Mayodan Sunday, November 9.

Evelyn Jones and husband, Henry, visited Lockhart Gaddy's wild goose refuge in Ansonville, and came back by the Morrow Mountain State Park.

Hattie Bray's mother has returned home after visiting her old home and friends in Walnut Cove.

Pauline Keck's son who has been stationed in Europe for the past year, has been discharged and is now at home.

Rosa Wilkerson had as her week-end guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coker of Cheraw, S. C.

Iva Coffman's mother and sister from Knoxville, Tenn., visited her over the week-end.

Azzlea Frith's husband, Sgt. Rudolph Frith, has re-enlisted for two years, and has been re-assigned to the 423rd Construction Battalion at Camp Rucker.

Violet Hobson and husband were called to Jacksonville, Fla., by the death of her brother-in-law, W. H. West, who passed away November 8.

Ira and Charlie Simpson wish to thank Anvil Brand employees for the lovely flowers for the funeral of their mother who died recently in South Carolina.

Shirt

By

Vicki Fowler

Dora Mae Byerly and Attalene Fletcher went to Shelby to see a football game. With Dora Mae rooting for Gardner-Webb and Attalene for Lee-McRae, anything might have happened, but the game ended in a tie.

Ruth and Bill Samuels with a group of friends went on a sight-seeing tour along Skyline Drive. They visited Luray Caverns, Fort Royal, Va., and many more points of interest, and spent the night in Winchester, Va.

A baby girl, Deborah Lynn, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Dick Peoples on October 11, in Atlanta, and this makes Bertha Franklin a great-grandmother for the second time. Announcing its arrival, a card was sent reading, "Haven't been here very long, At least that's what they say, But none the less it's sure my guess, My folks want me to stay."

Mary Hamilton had as her week-end guests recently her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Misner, accompanied by their daughter and her family. The guests were returning from a visit to Wagner, South Dakota, and stopped off here en route to their home in Virginia.

J. W. Grey and Shirley Ann Stafford were married in Gaffney, S. C., Saturday, November 1. They were accompanied to South Carolina by Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Chaney.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing for Peggy Rush. She's wearing a beautiful solitaire on her third finger, left hand.

Dora Mae and Ernest Byerly, Ed and Elsie Siers and Cheryl, went to Asheville the week-end of November 8 to see Asheville, Biltmore and Gardner-Webb College play football. Gardner-Webb won 14 to 6 and this makes them eligible for a bid to play in the Little Bowl game in Brunswick, Ga., December 6.

Ruth and Clara Miller's father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Miller, have moved to Trinity from Salemburg.

Helen English and her husband were strolling by Albertson's Lake recently when they decided to go fishing. They came home with 15.

Peggy Rush and her fiancee, with a group of friends, spent the week-end sight-seeing in Washington, D. C.

Mary Hamilton's daughter, Juanita, spent her two weeks vacation visiting friends in Fort Dodge, Iowa.

(Continued on Page Six)