

To Elma Hiatt and family we wish to extend our deepest sympathy in the recent death of their loved one, little William Allen Edwards. Elma wishes to express her appreciation for the beautiful flowers and the many expressions of sympathy offered the family following the recent death of her grandson.

We were all glad to see Mabel Sorrell and Elizabeth Rogers back at work after being out sick for a week. Also are glad to know that Mabel's little boy, Stevie, is well again, and that Mary Brown's little girl, Susie, is out again.

Congratulations to Mary and Jesse Brown and daughter, Susie. They have moved into their new home on McCain Place.

Ruby Greene was presented with a shower recently and received many beautiful gifts.

We welcome the following new employees: Jackie Boles, Clara Ruth, Bobby Smith, and we're glad to have Anna Harrison, Alma Peele, and Margaret Overby with us again.

Congratulations to Lloyd Hedgecock and family. They will soon move into their new home on Clover Drive.

Carl Tuttle from the finishing room is a member of the Melody Harmonizers quartet which sings over WMFR every Tuesday night at 7:30 with the exception of the first Tuesday in each month. The Harmonizers will appear in person at Trinity High School tonight.

Ruth Samuels's father, J. E. Burgess, had a light stroke and heart attack while at work and is now confined to his home near Flint Hill.

Utility

By Marie
Wray

Ila Martin and son spent the week-end visiting a new nephew in Francisco.

We wish to express our sympathy to Vera Tuttle in the death of her brother-in-law in Florida.

We certainly miss Frances Russell who has gone to Alaska to be with her husband who is in service.

We are sorry to report that Marie Wray's father is in High Point Memorial Hospital with a kidney stone.

Georgia Payton and husband took a pleasure trip to Roaring Gap and Blowing Rock.

Janie Sheetz had relatives from Florida and Texas as visitors over the week-end.

Julia Jones's brother is home from Korea to stay. We know she is happy.

We are sorry to hear that Edna Patterson's mother-in-law is in High Point Memorial Hospital with a heart attack, and hope that she will be better soon.

Viola Draper reports that she had a very good time on a recent trip to the Carolina coast.

Ella Allen and sister-in-law made a trip to San Antonio, Texas and Mexico. They got back October 18.

Margaret Davis spent a week-end recently in Petersburg, Va.

We wish to welcome Lucille Rising, a newcomer to our department, and hope her stay here will be a long and happy one.

We are sorry to hear that Ethel Haynes's brother is in a hospital in Philadelphia.

Ruth Johnson visited her husband, Sg. Tommie Johnson at Camp Kilmer, N. J. He is to go to Germany soon.

Mary Lou Pope, Maxine Dennis and Mrs. Albert Meadows spent the week-end in Charlotte visiting Mrs. Meadows's mother.

Lucy Garrett attended the church wedding of her nephew, Jake Fralley, in Albemarle.

Edith Tysinger is out with a severely burned left hand. She turned hot grease over on it. We are hoping that it will get well rapidly and that she will be with us again soon.

Mazie Lyles spent a week-end with her son and mother in Galivant's Ferry, S. C.

Dungaree

By Betty
Bell

Nancy York has left us to go to work in Thomasville.

Anne Saintsing's son, Max, who is with the Air Force, is now stationed in France.

Betty Johnston's grandfather, Frank Hoover, who was 92 years of age, died at his home in Robbins. Our sincere sympathy goes to Betty and her family.

Ethel Wise surprised her son, Brunell, with a birthday party at Borden's on his 10th birthday recently.

Lola Smith's son, James, is now in Japan, while Maurice is at the Naval Air Base in Jacksonville, Fla. Donald has just finished his basic at San Diego, Calif., and is now at Bainbridge, Md.

Helen Jones and family spent a recent week-end at Wake Forest.

Ludie Mae Ingram's husband, Jay, has been ill for a few days but is better now and has returned to work.

John and "Jo" Kendrick would like to thank all the girls for the lovely gifts that were given to them. They were deeply appreciated.

Betty Bell would like to say "thank you" to the front-makers in her department for the birthday gifts and cards.

Rev. and Mrs. J. G. Binkley and son, David, had supper with Dorothy Collins and husband on a recent Sunday.

Arnold Mills, son of Dora Mills,
(Continued on Page Seven)

AT THE WHITE DIVISION — Newcomers welcomed to the White Division during the past month include: top row, left to right, Irene Beck and M. Eugene Shelton, of the pants department, Bobby Smith of the shirt department, and Lola Craven of pants; middle row, Geneva Cook, Bobby McDaniel, Mildred King and Bertha Tuggle, all of the pants department; bottom row, Minnie Tuggle and Ruth Mann of pants, and Clara Ruth of the shirt department.