

badly burned and also, because she breathed hot steam, had to be hospitalized with pneumonia. We hope she will soon be well and with us again.

We truly hope it will not be long before Edna Patterson's father will be well. He was operated on Sunday night.

Janie Sheetz had a nice week end at Carolina Beach. She and the entire family went.

Kat Hill and family went with friends and took their lunch to High Rock Lake Sunday.

Violet Miller's brother-in-law me home on a leave Sunday night. He is in the armed services. Theresa Willoughby has relatives visiting her from Georgia.

TROPHY WINNER — Jerry Andrews, 13, son of Carol Andrews of overall and boxer, has won numerous horse show entries with his pony "Champ, Jr." The horse has taken two "best parade pony" trophies and one for winning a race. He also has about 10 ribbons to his credit.

TWO — Kathy Lynn, daughter of Phyllis Hobson of the overall and boxer department, was two years old on July 28.

Shirt at White
By Ruth Barnes

Peggy Whitt's brother, Phillip Dunn, has recently joined the U. S. Air Force. He is stationed in San Antonio, Texas.

Jessie Fritts and Alma Peele attended the wedding of Betty Lou Hayworth at Abbotts Creek Baptist Church recently.

Ollie Hedgecock and husband motored to Baltimore recently and while there attended a boat race.

Mattie White's daughter, Barbara, was married to J. L. McCormick in July.

We are glad to hear that Carmen Jennings' husband is back at work after his stay in the hospital.

Louise Farrington and Bert Ferguson attended the wedding of Bert's nephew, Raeford Trivette, at Woodlawn Baptist Church on August 7.

Our sympathy goes to Annie Hughes and Thelma Lomax in the death of their brother, Ray Jones, on August 7.

Mildred Rickard, along with friends, spent a recent week end in Washington, D. C. Mildred reports she had a wonderful time.

We wish to welcome Ruby Norris back after her absence.

Mabel Sorrell wishes to thank the girls for the shower which was given her before she went on leave of absence.

Rachel Odom attended a homecoming in Montgomery County recently.

house (when the little woman is away for the night).

The B-r-r-s and Z-o-o-m's you've been hearing in the departments aren't kids playing with their toy cars. It's just the race addicts rehashing Saturday's race and showing how No. 10 or No. 11-A "wound up," made his turn, or went through the fence.

A hearty welcome to the newcomers who are: Richard Webster, James Wade, John Turner, Danny Corn, Mary Edna Chapman, and Randall Guyer, all on the first shift; and Byron Farlow, Dan Duggins, Jr., Leroy Sellers, and Bill Cook on the second shift.

end in Bessemer City attending the funeral of her cousin, Raymond Rickman.

Lola Jones' husband, Malden, is in the hospital with a broken hip.

Janie Shelton announces the marriage of her son, Lorenzo Robinson, to Nancy Rogers. They were married on July 31 at Chester, S. C. Janie is our sweeper.

Lela Briles wants to put a verse of scripture in this column each month—a verse to remember:

"If any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross, and follow me." — Matthew 16: 24.

Dungaree
By Mammie Hill

Betty Bell and family spent last week end at Hanging Rock.

Ina Holland visited her son in Wilson Sunday.

Pauline Moss is on leave now and before she left she was given a stork shower.

John Kendrick and family spent last Sunday at Hanging Rock.

We are glad to have Mary Earomirski with us as our training supervisor. She was transferred from ladies' dungaree.

Minnie Spencer had two aunts to visit her over the week end, Mrs. J. P. Parker and Mrs. J. W. Teal.

(Continued on Page Seven)

SISTERS — They are Virginia Kaye, 10 months, and Therisa Ann, three years, daughters of Virginia Deaton of overall and boxer.

Mostly Men
By Earl Oldham

The second shift is now operating as a complete shipping unit with the addition of a packer and a marker. Midnight snacks of bacon, eggs, and coffee are the order of the day (night) now — either at Bobby Corn's bachelor quarters or at your reporter's

Pants
By Betty Saltz

We wish to welcome the new girls to our department and we hope they will enjoy working with us. They are: Peggy Rickard, Vernell Myers, Leona Bryant, Stacie Call, Viola Doss, Claudette Ellison, and Lona Vestal.

Eulala Taylor's daughter, Brenda, got burned rather badly while burning trash.

Lorraine Eure and husband went to Morehead City on a fishing trip.

Esther Hughes and Ossie Wright went to Carolina Beach on a long week end and had a wonderful time.

Louise Lester spent the week

HAPPY — That's the state of Harold Dean, seven months, son of Peggy Whitt of the shirt department at White and grandson of Beulah Gunter at the Sherrod division.