

Shirt at White

By
Myrtle
Jennings

Gatha Cox and family visited her parents in Carbon Hill during Christmas.

Louise Wagner and family visited her parents in Elkins, West Virginia during the holidays.

Patricia Hughes, daughter of Annie Hughes went with the Jamestown High School Band to Miami, Florida and took part in the parade for the Orange Bowl game on Jan. 2. While in Florida they toured several interesting places and reports are they had a wonderful time.

Annie Hughes would like to thank all the girls for the lovely gifts and Christmas cards. Thanks a million, girls.

Alma Peele would like to thank the girls for the lovely dishes they surprised her with for a house warming gift. Alma has been transferred to the office as timekeeper for the Shipping Dept. Hope you'll like your new job, Alma.

Carlene Hill has also been transferred to working with samples. We hope you'll like your job also.

Bertha Ferguson walked off with 4th place in the Turkey Trot at the Arcade Bowling alley on Sat., Jan. 6th. Bert is believed to be the oldest bowler competing. Good work, Bertha.

Louise Hale had a houseful of company for Christmas dinner. They included her mother, Mrs. Anna Umberger and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Umberger from Wytheville, Virginia and nephew Howard Umberger from Air Force Base in Texas.

We're glad to have Polly Walker back after having an attack of tonsillitis.

Corleen Stanley entertained all her husbands' family at her home during Christmas and judging from the pictures she took she had a house full.

We were sorry to hear that Mary Sparks was sick with tonsillitis all during Christmas. Glad you're better now, Mary.

We're glad Charles Isenhour's daughter Virginia is better after undergoing an operation for ruptured appendix. Oh, and by the way, Charles' Young son is about two months old now. He received a letter from the President and his wife (Dwight D. and Mamie Eisenhower). Congratulations

Independence

By
Etta Rose
Jones

Arlene Felts and family visited relatives in Burlington during the holidays . . . Joan Greer had her mother and father from Grassy Creek as dinner guests recently . . . Alberta Isaacs visited with friends at Pleasant Grove . . . Lois Catran and family visited relatives in Galax, Va. . . Kathleen Hackler and husband were shopping in Bristol, Tenn., recently.

Frances Anderson and family shopped recently in Winston-Salem . . . Nell Miller and husband, Paul, visited Nell's new niece Cathy, of Richmond and later visited relatives in Baltimore . . . Faye Anders and family spent Christmas day with her mother, Mrs. Walters Holdaway of Mouth of Wilson, Va. . . Faye Bobbitt and husband, James, spent the holidays with Faye's mother in Galax, Va. . . Ethel Phipps visited her father, C. P. Phipps at Fox, Va., this weekend.

Agnes Harrington and husband has as overnight guests, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Hackler . . . Those visiting in the home of Hattie Carpenter during the holidays were Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Maines of Squire, W. Va., and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Carpenter of Washington, D. C.

Congratulations to Carrie Ward, who has just returned home from Richmond where she visited her daughter and son-in-law and that new, beautiful granddaughter, Cathy . . . Welcome to our new girls, Lois Catron, Betty Young, Nancy Hash and Davis Vaught.

Mr. and Mrs. John Parsons of San Antonio, Texas, spent the holidays with Irene Parsons . . . Helen Rutherford visited relatives at Winston-Salem and Mt. Airy recently.

Dwight David Isenhour, that will be something for you to show your grandchildren.

Our department would like to say "Thanks" to Mr. Kirchofer and Company for the lovely gift. We like them an awful lot and think it was very nice for them to give it to us.

Yours truly had a very nice Christmas, we stayed at home but enjoyed ourselves just watching our 3 sons with their Christmas goodies. Later we topped of the

SHERROD

By Edith English

You should see those good-looking pictures of Flo Whickers' son, Wayne. He sent them from Germany. . . Treva Shoffer was married to J. D. Wade December 3. Treva is the daughter of Eva Shaffer of finishing and J. D. is the brother of Richard Wade.

Mary Haynes' three children have been very sick with scarlet fever . . . Mary Griffin is all smiles; her daughter Juanita is coming home from Germany . . . Gay Lowe was in town visiting for the holidays — wish we could have seen her . . . Doris and Maude Bizzell's mother isn't doing too well; she re-entered the hospital January 13.

Kathaleen Mitchell and family had a wonderful time in Florida at Christmas . . . Bea Craven's son, A 1-C Stuart Craven, was discharged from the Army Dec. 6 and is living near Thomasville now.

We hear that Ethel Lee and husband are having a wonderful time in Riverside, Calif. . . Osa Mitchell and husband went to Florida for Christmas. Osa has a real honest-to-goodness suntan . . . Mozelle Gross and Albert spent Christmas in Asheville with their son, Albert, Jr., and family . . . Glad to hear that Amy Hedgecock's mother is at home and doing fine after being in the hospital with a heart attack . . . Glad to have Maggie Swaim back with us; she looks so well now . . . Mary Ridge and family went to New Jersey and New York for Christmas . . . Elsie Wilkes spent the holiday in Swainsboro, Ga., with her father . . . Clarissia Stamey had all five sisters, their families and her mother for Christmas dinner . . . Beulah Gunter's son, Phillip Gunter, was home from Amarillo, Texas . . . Zylpha Ingram and family had Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Ingram of Kernersville.

Ruth Kemp's son won the Little League Baseball Trophy for the highest pitching and batting average in the National League . . . Mary Myers and Pauline Smith's father is very ill in the hospital at Chapel Hill . . . Ruth Roberts and family spent the weekend in Greenville, Tenn.

Cora Gammon's son left for Japan Jan. 4. One thing Cora is happy about is that he left his wife and little son with her . . . Leola Newell's brother, Dal-day by having a very delicious dinner with my sister-in-law, Carmen.

Utility
By Vera
Meyers

We have made a change since last month. We're now working in the Utility Department where most of the girls are from the Dungaree Department.

The girls would like to thank the company for the lovely bedspreads we received for Christmas. They surely were nice.

Minnie Spencer visited her sister and friends in Baltimore, Md., during the holidays . . . Bertha Chatham had company from Norwood for Christmas. Her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Beeson and Hilda.

Grace Suttorn and family spent Christmas in Florida with her son, Edwin Sutton. He lives in West Palm Beach . . . Dora Freeman also visited Florida during the holidays and reports a nice trip.

Addie Weaver has returned to work with us . . . hope she enjoys the new department . . . Grace Rumsey's son, Johnny, was married to Melba Jean Bryant December 23 . . . Welcome to our new girl, Lillie Thompson. Hope she enjoys working with us.

las Jester, of Wallace spent the holidays with her . . . Ida Kimble's grandson, Robert Upchurch, left for the Marines Jan. 16. She reports her son, Alfred, is doing nicely and is back in college after being in a wreck.

Pauline Smith is so happy! She is a grandmother. Jerry and Joanne Smith have a girl, Deborah Kaye . . . Bea Proctor says she had a good time painting her bedroom during the holidays . . . Rona Comer went on a long trip over the weekend—to Starr!

Santa Claus brought Harmon Lehmon a football game. But he can't win . . . Edith English is a very proud lady these days—she's in a beautiful new home. If anybody would like to, you can go eat Sunday lunch any time; she would be glad to have you.

Ola McMillian has a new baby boy. He sure was a big one—nine pounds and five ounces. We are so happy for her.

We are glad to report that Pearl Cameron's son and daughter, both of whom have been in the hospital, are out now and doing fine.