

Office

By
Harrell
Clementine

HUDSON DIVISION

Bill Thomas is happy to tell us they have moved into their new church, Oak Hill Friends, at the corner of Ward Street and Westchester Drive. Bill is choir director and is planning an Easter Cantata for March 29 at 7:30 p.m. and everyone is invited.

Betty, Bill and Mickey Williams visited Bill's parents in Lincolnton during a recent weekend.

Wonder who has been escorting a certain girl to Greensboro and Winston-Salem in a 1950 Ford? . . . Verline Brower has a pretty new Ford, blue and cream. When are you going to take us for a ride, Verline?

Rachel Robinson is trying to gain a few pounds and is eating all the time—sure does make it hard on us who have to watch our waistline.

We want to welcome Johnny Davis and Patsy Inman; Johnny is our new mailboy and Patsy transferred to the payroll department from the ticket office at Sherrod.

WHITE DIVISION

Congratulations to Clayton and Betty Holmes. They have a new baby girl, Janet Paige.

Welcome to Nancy Hyde who was transferred from shipping department to our office. We hope she will like her work and enjoy being with us.

SALES

Mary Fetner and her daughter, Dee, are visiting in Hendersonville this weekend. Hope they have a good time.

Ellen Moore is busy as can be. Why? It could be because she is to be married April 7.

Moselle Boyles, Lucilla Dagenhart, Shirley Adams and Lib Madden gave a shower Friday, in Ellen's honor. Prizes went to Ollie Weston and Mot Smith. Ellen received many nice gifts and everyone had a fine time.

To Ellen and Jackie we wish much happiness and success in the future.

Welcome to Gertrude Mooney, a newcomer.

We extend our sympathy to our salesman, Harry Woodruff, whose mother passed away recently.

Doxie Patton has been ill for

Pants

By Louise
Overman

Spring finally is here and Easter is just around the corner; hope everyone has a nice one.

Clara Hepler and friends toured the mountains during a recent weekend . . . Donna Robertson visited her sister in Winston-Salem Saturday and got in a little shopping . . . Margie Stroud reports she recently was bitten on the leg by a dog.

Lottie Kimsey's husband, S. J., now has his own plumbing business at 607 Wise St. . . . Sorry that Lina Bradshaw has been sick, but glad she's back with us and feeling better . . . Agatha McDonald's daughter, Patsy, sloyly is improving from burns received when her dress caught fire . . . We extend our deepest sympathy to Emma Truitt whose husband, Mr. Corey Truitt, died of a heart attack February 24, and to Juanita Welborn whose father, Mr. Charlie L. Black, died March 8.

Opal Adams and Ruth Myers attended the funeral of their brother-in-law in North Wilkesboro . . . Lela selected our Bible verse from Luke 11:33—"Heaven and earth shall pass away; but my words shall not pass away."

Eulala Taylor's son recently had a wreck. Luckily no one was hurt but the car was a total loss . . . Jessie Hemric and Ann Harris and families visited friends at Draper . . . Verta Hines is out sick; we hope she'll soon be back with us.

The best reformers are those who commence on themselves.

If you are too quick on the draw, your bank balance will soon be shot to pieces.

several days. She has an ear infection. Hope she soon will be back with us. Fern Beck and Rene Suggs enjoyed spending a weekend with Nancy Potts. On Sunday we attended Oak Hill Friends Church to hear Bill Thomas' choir and Jerry Talley sing a solo, "I Walked Into the Garden."

The sales division is glad to report we finally are rid of our little varmints (the bugs).

Independence

By
Etta Rose
Jones

Carrie Ward visited her sister in Elkin last weekend . . . Audra Edwards and family visited relatives at Squire, West Va., recently . . . Recent shopper in Wytheville was Opal Lowe and Pauline Poe in Galax . . . Mr. and Mrs. Basil Carpenter and family visited relatives in Burlington.

Congratulations to Helen Ruth-erford who was married to Dewey Brewer Feb. 17.

Welcome to our newcomer, Rae Anders.

Seems J. L. Richardson is taking lots of trips to Radford during the weekends. Can't seem to get him to talk about them. Wonder why?

Kathleen Hackler and husband, Arnold, had as recent supper guests, Mr. and Mrs. French Harrington . . . Glad to report that Scott Anders is a member of "The Happy Five" and has been appearing at various singings . . . Weekend guests of Lucille Kilby was her sister, Charlene Watson of Elkin . . . Davis Vaught spent the weekend at Wytheville with relatives . . . Recent Sunday guests of Oma Jane McGrady were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor of Volney, Va.

Overalls

By
Hattie Bray

Hi there! Spring is just around the corner and the ladies in our department are getting in the mood, exchanging flowers . . . Donald Farlow went fishing recently and said he caught a nice one and some small ones.

Glad to have Pauline Brown and Virginia Robertson working in our department . . . Lula Bell Shackelford has moved into her new home, 521 Nathan Hunt Drive. She also visited her aunt, Mrs. Emma Smith of King.

Pauline Keck is out on sick leave. Hope she's feeling better. Eltis Morgan is in the hospital; hope she has a speedy recovery.

SHERROD

By Edith English

Welcome back to Geneva Davis and Jean Beck; it's nice to have you with us again . . . Some people are lucky; Ila Whicker went to Florida for a few days and reports a wonderful trip.

Sulah Olive's daughter, Wondean Fredericks, is back in the States from Germany and will be with Sulah at Easter . . . Peggy Weaver and husband, Harvey, flew to Chattanooga, Tenn., for a recent weekend.

Ida Kimball went to Parris Island to see her son and family. Another son has been visiting her from Mars Hill College . . . Glad to have Jane Rhodes, Kate Bryant and Beulah Beeson back with us after their absence due to sickness.

Pearl Freeman went to Washington to see her daughter and family . . . Claressa Stamey has moved in her new home. It is simply beautiful; she says she is working herself to death fixing it up . . . Elsie Wilkes recently went to Georgia to visit her daughter.

Those who would do something about crime prevention should see to it that the treatment begins in the high chair—not the electric chair.

DUNGAREE—

(Continued from Page Four)

McGaha and Bobby Hiatt, who were married Feb. 19. Opal Myers and her husband were attendants.

Claudine White and her husband visited her uncle in the Veteran's Hospital at Johnson City, Tenn. . . . Mary Sprye, her family and married daughter, went on a picnic to Morrow Mountain Park. (Isn't that rushing the season a little?) . . . Ina Venable and her husband spent last weekend in Laurinburg visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dick Monroe . . . Winnie Shirley had her son and family from Barnwell, S. C., to spend the weekend with her.

Leone Caudill's two sisters and their families from North Wilkesboro visited her during a recent weekend . . . Mabel Slate visited her sister in Winston-Salem.

Judy and Howard Hendren visited relatives in Alexander County last Sunday . . . Emma Charles says if you have a flat tire and Addie Weaver passes her, don't expect any help—she just looks the other way.

Sadie Hedgecock has a new granddaughter, Leslie Beth. Harold and Almetta Hedgecock are the proud parents.