Hope everyone is enjoying these beautiful Spring weekends. We would like to welcome our newcomer, Alma Marsh, and also the girls transferred from other departments who include Edith Horton, Hazel Wallace and Ollie Trent from Ladies; Gloria Leonard from Dungaree.

Dora Freeman has been out because of flu . . . Marie Ferguson and husband are enjoying their new house trailer . . . Glad to hear Ludie Mae's husband, Jay, is up and able to work.

Our sympathy goes to Thelma Smith, whose mother-in-law passed away recently . . . Sorry to report Betty Evans will be leaving soon. She and her husband are moving to Akron, O. Was nice working with you, Betty, and lots of luck.

Emma Charles is really taking advantage of these pretty weekends. Recently she went to Carolina Beach and visited all over Wilmington. Saw Orton Plantation and other points of interest.

Eskew Crofts reports a wonderful trip to the mountains . . . Lena Wilson went to Carolina Beach . . . Gracie Sutton visited her mother-in-law in Anawalt, W. Va., recently . . . Minnie Spencer has as her guest, an aunt from Marion; Minnie also toured Chapel Hill—visited the Planetarium and the University.

Ruth Newton has as her guests her sister and brother-in-law from Houston, Texas.

Read this somewhere—thought I would pass it along—"Running people down is a bad habit—whether you are a gossip or a motorist."

Minnie Spencer and husband visited Grandfather Mountain this past weekend . . . Christine Andrews, daughter of Lillian Wood, was home for a few days recently. Christine is in nurses training at the Presbyterian Hospital in Charlotte.

"A neighbor is someone who'll exchange a cupful of sugar for an earful of gossip." — Sarah Vaughn.

Hello, friends—just a word to say how wonderful it is to be back. My baby is fine; weighed 18 pounds at three months. I will begin writing news from this department next month. In the meantime, the best of everything to everybody.

And a big hello to the girls who were transferred to the White Division from Sherrod.

Theresa Willoughby has had a busy month. Her in-laws visited her from Florida and Theresa also visited relatives in Georgia.

Polly Melton had a nice birthday dinner for her husband at the City Lake . . . Nancy Owens is planning to be married in May; Covie Dameron's daughter, Polly, is to be a bridesmaid for her.

Judy Jones is enjoying herself at home with her new baby.

Well, everyone is back at work after a wonderful two weeks vacation while the company was having new floors put down. The floors certainly are pretty.

Agnes Joyce drove to New Orleans, La., and visited her sister in Baton Rouge and all her relatives in Mankville, La. She drove through the Azalea Park in Jackson, Miss. and also went on an all-night moonlight trip down the Mississippi River.

Donna Robertson went to Washington, D. C. . . . Says the cherry blossoms were beautiful and she enjoyed the trip very much . . . Thelma McCandless went to Jacksonville, Fla., to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. P. Garner, and her grandchildren . . . Jean Sweat took a trip to camp Gordon, Ga. Says it's a beautiful place . . . Dot Lambeth and son, Rickey, visited her parents in Ohio.

Mamie Phillips visited in Chattanooga and Cleveland, Tenn. . . . Mary Farmer and family had relatives from Atlanta, Ga., as guests . . . Della Pierce's brother, James D. Stillely, came home from the Navy for two weeks. He was supposed to be back the 25th of April. She left work Wednesday morning and took him to the Raleigh Airport.

Gertrude Spainhour went to Amelia, Va., to visit her husband's family . . . Dot Woodell went to Lexington Park, Md., to visit her brother and family . . . Olive Fann went to Washington, D. C., to visit her sister and to Sampson County to visit her parents.

Maxine Sechrest visited Washington, D. C., with relatives . . . Peggy Bowman visited in Durham . . . Evelyn and Robert McMahan went to Bryson City . . . Ruth Mann and family went to Morehead City . . . Hazel Ward's daughter and grandchildren spent a week with her . . . Christine Joyner was given a stork shower . . . Iola Harris' daughter, Brenda, recently had her tonsils removed . . . Verlon Williamson's sons, Eddie and Gary, had their tonsils removed, too . . . Patsy Lambeth's daughter, Terry Lynn,
