Blood Donors Are Praised From Company

The following letter was received this month from Bill Snotherly and Dick Meisky who are co-chairmen of the Red Cross Blood Program in High Point:

"We are proud of the good people of High Point. Last week they rolled up their sleeves 518 times to give their blood to their fellow citizens. This is another example of what makes High Point a good town. From your firm there were 18 donors and two rejects. Please thank them for helping their friends and neighbors.

"You will be interested to know that we have received 41 pints of blood from your employees since last August. The next visit of the Bloodmobile will be at the YMCA June 13-14. We are counting on your continued support."

Anvil Branders who visited the Bloodmobile included Beatrice Brown, Doris Bursleson, Lyn-dell Cooper, Mary Davis, James H. Glover, Juanita Gordon, Beulah M. Gunter, Anna Harris, Kathryn Johnson, Velma Johnson, Lottie Kinsey, Anna McKinney, Evelyn McMahan, Herb Ross, Kathryn Shutt, Hazel P. Ward, Ollie Weston, Betty R. Williams, Agatha McDonald and Dorothy Woodell.

Nearly 105 million persons had voluntary health insurance against hospitalization expenses, as of mid-1955, according to an estimate by the Health Insurance Council. Insurance companies provide hospital expense protection for more than half of the total number of persons with this form of protection.

There are nearly 7,000 hospitals in the nation, according to the AHA. Of these, some 4,700 are "voluntary" or non governmental hospitals.

of prompt payment of claims. Our community hospital staff has served us well, and this is our opportunity to commend their enduring service to humanity.

We are proud of our nation's hospitals, and we are glad to salute the entire hospital team during National Hospital Week.

TWO HAPPY ONES — Wayne Smith is the son of Joyce Smith of Sport Shirt Dept. He is seven months old. Myra Brown is the five-year-old daughter of Ethel Brown of Dungaree.
