Hope everyone enjoyed Memorial Day and know everybody's looking forward to vacation.

Welcome to all the girls transferred from other departments. They include Ida Brame, Jewel Jones, Ruth Welborn, Edith Hill, Faye Frye, Mabel Friddle and Margie Edwards.

Virginia Shively visited her parents in Bassett, Va., recently . . . Faye Frye says it's really lonesome since her mother returned to Charlotte . . . Emma Charles recently visited her parents in Ramseur . . . Wonder why Emma's interest suddenly has turned to the Farmer's Market? . . . Gloria Leonard and family went to Fairystone Park . . . Edith Cleary visited her father in Veterans' Hospital in Durham . . . Betty Bell and family spent a day at Lake Waussicket. Betty says she had a grand time and only got ducked once.

Seen the tan Ludie Mae has been carrying around? It's the result of a wonderful weekend at the beach with her daughter, Nancy . . . Wondering why Geraldine Baird has a big smile lately? It's because she was able to get a house and bring her daughter here from Tennessee.

Something to pass along: Courtesy is always a paying investment because its stock is never watered with tears of regret.

Have you noticed Mabel Flynt's new haircut? Boy, it's short! . . . Glad to report Mildred Owen's mother is out of the hospital . . . The lovely poppies that were on the desk in Utility were grown by Onie Hayes.

If any of you have a monkey for sale, please contact Bill Lehman in Utility. He is monkey crazy . . . Joyce Chadwick is sporting a '55 Plymouth . . . Sorry to hear that Edith Hill's house burned last week . . . Faye Underwood's favorite song is "Slipping and Sliding." Glad your arm is better after the fall, Faye.

Delphine McCandless is suffering from a broken bone in her foot . . . Our sincere sympathy goes to Betty Chandler whose uncle died in Burlington.

Happy to report that Ludie Mae Ingram's brother, Henry, is feeling much better. He's in the Baptist Hospital.

Rose Haithcock had friends from Florida visiting . . . Irene Hill and family spent Sunday at White Lake; Irene got a pretty tan . . . Annie Holder spent last weekend in Salisbury. Lynda Gardner and husband enjoyed the races at Martinsville, Va. . . Ginger Bible has her sister-in-law from Tennessee visiting her.

Mae Hamblin, Lynda Gardner, Katie Hawks and Elsie Mot-singer and children spent Memorial Day at Reynolds Park. (On the way home the trip was delayed by a visit from a honey bee!)

The girls gave Mae Hamblin a stork shower last Friday. She got lots of pretty things.

Our sympathy goes to Pernie and David Harvell in the death of David's grandmother.

Ruth Torrence spent a recent Concord . . . Palice Robinson spent four days in Wadesboro with her father . . . Sorry to hear that Mae Flaivers and also Blanche Cheek lost their grandmothers.

Sorry to hear Bertha Prince's husband is in the hospital in Durham . . . Beatrice Steele went to Mt. Gilead recently to see her brother, who has been ill. She reports he is improving.

Bertha Prince spent a recent weekend in Gastonia and attended a banquet in Winston-Salem . . . Mary Alston still is enjoying fishing. She can hardly wait until vacation.

Welcome to our new employee, Phyllis Ray and Happy Birthday to Bevie Wright.

Frances Anderson and a group of friends attended church in Hillsville, Va., recently . . . Ethel Phipps visited her father and Mildred Spencer and family visited her brother in Fox.

Doris Vaught and Rose Ray went hiking last weekend . . . Arlene Felts and husband enjoyed a Sunday on the Parkway . . . Cleta Holdaway's husband spent the weekend at home; he is attending college in Bluefield.

Thelma Lovelace and children were in Chilhonie . . . Edna Ball's son, Harold, was home from the Navy.

Since the announcement of our new pant construction a question mark hangs over the head of every employee as to how work will flow through the plant on wheels. In most cases it sounds good to our old backs.

Visitors in our plant last week were Arthur Royals, A. C. Smith, Bill Roach, Herb Ross, Ossie Wright, Joyce Chapman and Kathryn Johnson.

Congratulations to Etta Rose Jones who celebrated her seventh wedding anniversary May 4 . . . Cleta Holdaway is proud of her husband who made the honor list at Bluefield College.

Trout season opened May 1 and Arthur Royals saw his first rainbow trout as Willard Hussey caught one right after another. Congratulations to Geneva Boyd who is wearing a "big diamond." Who is the lucky guy, Geneva? . . . Scott Anders and William Wright already have baseball fever. Independence is organizing a ball team, but their worry is: Are they good enough to make the team?

Dixie Anders spent an enjoyable Sunday at Hungry Mother Park . . . Who is the good looking Marine that Carol Osborne has been entertaining? . . . Evelyn Roberts visited her grandfather at Fox Sunday . . . Drucie Bryant had as visitors, her sister
