Thelma Smith celebrated her 12th wedding anniversary July 5th. Congratulations!

Mabel Flynt enjoyed the mountains during her vacation . . . Betty Bell and children spent a week at Myrtle Beach . . . Edith Horton and family toured Fla. . . Irene Dollar spent the week with her family in West Virginia.

Girls who vacationed in the mountains included Mildred Turner, Ida Brame, Emma Charles, Minnie Spencer and Lillian Wood . . . Edith Hill went to Florida . . . Mildred Owens spent a few days at Va. Beach . . . Anne Weaver, your reporter, along with hubby, Paul, drove to Washington, D. C.

Glad to have Ludie Mae Ingram back after the few days she spent in the hospital . . . Our sympathy goes to Mazie Edwards whose father died in Virginia.

Several girls said they just stayed at home and visited: Jo Ann Edwards, Thelma Smith, Margaret Armfield, Dora Freeman, Ruth Newton, Mary Carter and Sylvia Pope . . . Marie Ferguson spent a few days with her father in Virginia. Also Virginia Jennings and Virginia Shively spent their vacations with families in Virginia.

Ruth Newton has been sick for a few days . . . The girls in Utility gave Peggy Brookshire a stork shower recently. She received many gifts. Hurry back, Peggy.

Bill and Jessie Lehman spent their vacation just "taking it easy" in the mountains . . . Ludie Mae says to thank the girls in Utility for the flowers, gifts and cards she received while she was ill.

"Pull over, buddy," said the traffic cop, "you haven't got any tail light."

The motorist stopped, got out and examined the back of the car. He looked so genuinely horrified that the policeman was actually moved with sympathy.

"Well, mister, it's bad," said the cop, "but not that bad."

Recovering his voice, the motorist managed to stammer, "It's not the tail light . . . what's happened to my trailer!"

Departments "Float" In Cokes

Anvil Brand was practically "floating" in Coca-Colas one day recently when every single employee in High Point and Independence paused for free refreshment, too.

Several months ago the Safety Committee announced that any department which could complete three months without a lost-time accident, would be eligible for free Cokes for every person in that department.

This last quarter everybody decided to give the Safety Committee a run for their money. When the quarterly accident reports were turned in, each department reported no lost time accidents.

Thus the free Cokes. About 850 of them, too.

However, the Safety Committee paid off cheerfully, And they say they are more than happy to come up with the free Cokes if the departments will come up with the accident-free reports.

'Tis said you can air-condition your own car with a new $235 do-it-yourself kit of equipment, and lots of ingenuity.

Ladies Dept. No. 1

Gee, but did my husband and I enjoy my vacation at the beach. Wish the weeks weren't so short . . . Grace Brannon enjoyed a few days of her vacation at Virginia Beach with her family . . . Charlotte Morgan visited the mountains and stopped in to see her husband's grandmother . . . Mary Earomirski thanks the girls for the duster she received for her birthday and for the lovely cards.

Dovie Dameron traveled two ways. First she went to Fayetteville to see her daughter and then went to Washington, D. C. . . . Viola Draper had a fine trip to Virginia and also visited her daughter in Asheboro . . . Grady Swacker went to Pulaski, Va., where her sister, Louise, lives.

Bertha Hinson had a swell time in Florida and visiting her mother . . . Glad Jean Leonard's sister, Barbara, is fine after an operation . . . Ronnie Brown visited her father in Youngsville.

Theresa Willoughby had a nice vacation—her son and his wife and their son visited her . . . Betty Saltz stayed at home except for a day visiting a friend . . . Virginia Davis was glad to spend the week with her family in Asheville . . . Dorothy West took two weeks off and went to the beach and to her mother's home in Raleigh . . . Velva Hazelwood's husband is doing fine after an operation . . . Geneva Lethco vacationed in Florida . . . Rose Marie Kidd and her husband went to Washington . . . Peggy Quate had a nice time at Atlantic Beach.

Well, this is all for now. So girls, settle back now 'til next Fourth of July when we'll travel again.
