Thanksgiving is drawing near and lots of us are planning a trip home or elsewhere, but we may hear little talk of the real meaning of Thanksgiving. Actually, we have a lot to be thankful for, so let's all stop and think, on Thanksgiving Day, what the word Thanksgiving really means.

Pernie Harvill is wearing a smile these days. Could it be because they are building a new home?

Lynda Gardner had visitors from Virginia recently. . . Yours truly and husband spent last Sunday at Pilot Mountain. . . Elsie Motsinger and family spent last weekend in Gastonia visiting relatives. . . Pauline Mendenhall had visitors from Washington, D. C. . . Glad to have Louise Easter helping us out these days. . . Welcome to our new girls, Martha Fields, Betty Miller and Frances Davis. Hope they enjoy working with us.

Glad to have Ina Mae Hamblin back after her leave of absence. She now is the proud mother of a boy.

Bertha Lee Prince spent a weekend with friends in Gastonia. . . Glad to have Palice Robinson back after her absence. . . Blanche Cheek had her nephew visiting her from Brooklyn, N. Y. . . Fishing season is over for Mary Alston and Ruth Torrence. They now are getting their dogs ready for the rabbit season.

Glad to welcome our newcomers for this month and glad to have Margaret Torrence back with us. . . Ruth Torrence's nephew is home on furlough. . . Mae Flowers has moved to Pennsylvania to make her home.

Well, it sure looks like Winter is headed our way.

Mrs. Theresa Willoughby enjoyed guests last weekend from Georgia, including her sister-in-law and family. . . Dovie Dameron reported having a wonderful time in South Carolina last month. She saw several friends and relatives at a dinner there. . . Dorothy West has been sick but is back at work. She recently visited her father and mother in Raleigh.

Mary Earomirski enjoyed a recent trip to the mountains. . . Sorry to hear Viola Draper's step-mother is ill. Myrtle Kennedy had a nice dinner in Greensboro with her sister.

Welcome to our new girls.

Myrtle Kennedy's son Charles, is stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C. and she hopes he will be home for a visit before long.

BABY DOLL — Edward Lee Overby is the son of James Overby of Sherrod and Bessie Mae Overby. He was three weeks old when this picture was taken.

Happiness is possible only when one is busy. The body must toil, the mind must be occupied, and the heart must be satisfied. Those who do good as opportunity offers are sowing seed all the time, and they need not doubt the harvest.

This country needs more people raising beans—and fewer spilling 'em.

would like to thank Mr. Kirchofer for the 15-year pins.

Polly Walker and family visited Carolina Beach recently. . . Welcome to our new girls. . . Getha Cox has a baby girl. It weighed seven pounds and five ounces and has red hair. Hurry and bring her up here so we can see her, Getha.

"The person who is so self-centered that he sees life only from his own point of view and makes no allowances for the problems and burdens of others, has yet to learn what true religion is."
