Rock 'n Roll Band Features Talley, Ward

"Jerry Talley and Honchos," probably the newest "rock 'n roll" band in the city, now is available for bookings with two Anvil Brand young men among the performers. In addition to Jerry, organizer and lead singer of the band, the group also has Grayson Ward as baritone vocalist.

Jerry is in the payroll department and Grayson is in the Accounting department.

So far this season the band has made only one professional appearance, but will be available for bookings after the Christmas season, Jerry said. So far the band has three guitarists, a drummer and the two vocalists. Jerry said he is looking for two saxophonists to round out a really "gone" rock 'n roll group.

Play saxophone, anyone?
