

Shown above are four lovely young ladies who represented NCC at the Winter Sports Extravaganza held in the new, North Carolina College Gymnasium on February 6 and 7.

An Open Letter To Wimp

DEAR WIMP

This might be referred to as a note, but we think that it is an important note to an important, and almost indispensable person. This is a note to you, the Student Government, Vice-president and the Speaker of the Student Congress.

Your knowledge of Student Government procedures, of Student Opinion, and of Student Organization, has been the basis of the successful year which we, the Student Congress, have had. Through your ability to lead, to organize and to work, we have been able to serve the student body, which elected us, well. You have had to coerce us, at times, into attending meetings, and occasionally, you have had to threaten to suspend us for not behaving in a manner which is conducive to the effective operation of the Student Congress, as the legislative organ of Student Government. You have always been alert to parliamentary procedures in our congress meetings, and at all times you have executed the authority, vested in you by the student body, with dignity and with maximum respect for each congress member.

In your responsibilities as vice-president of the SG organization, you have donated your time, and your superior ability uninhibitedly, and you have done these things with little regard for self-esteem, and personal gain.

You are an athlete, a scholar, and a man of extraordinary leadership ability. You are a vice-president who has loaned unquestionable respect to his office.

THE STUDENT CONGRESS

An Open Letter To Jimmy

Dear Jimmy,

I am taking this opportunity to congratulate you publicly on the successful completion of your one year term as President of the North Carolina College Student Government Association. I would also like to commend you on the stupendous job that you have accomplished as our president, and on the dignity and self-respect with which you have executed the duties of your position.

Your slogan at the beginning of the year was, "A YEAR OF TRADITIONS." During this year, and under your leadership, through the medium of the Student Congress, bills and resolutions have been introduced and instituted in the statutory proceedings of NCC to lay the foundation for the recognition of these traditions. The tradition of Freshmen wearing beanies, of Miss North Carolina College being recognized as the Official hostess for the Eagles, of the election of the Editor of the Campus ECHO, are but a few of the outstanding accomplishments of your successful year.

The intelligence with which you have made strategic decisions concerning our student body is typical of your leadership ability, and the calm, rational, manner in which you have approached the most confusing situations is sufficient testimony to your superior mentality and rare sense of judgement.

student officials, have been faced with the problem of lack of student interest in Student Government, and the lack of student participation in student activities. However, you have been willing to give your priceless time, your immeasurable energy, and your genius of organization to such an extent, that there have been few, if any failures in your program.

GERMAN PROFS. VISIT NCC

Two German professors are making a tour of the educational institutions of the United States visited North Carolina College here recently as part of their tour through the Southern states. The professors were Dr. Hans Proesler of the University of Economics and Social Sciences in Neurenburg, and Dr. Merner Mahr, of the Karlsruhe, Techicher Hochschule. The tour was under the auspices of the U. S. State Department's teacher exchange program to acquaint foreign educators with the American way of life. While in North Carolina, the professors visited Duke University, University of North Carolina, and N. C. State College. They were accompanied on their N.C.C. trip by Dr. Carl Hanson of Duke University.
