

Pasty Brewington Attends AKA Boule

Miss Patsy Brewington represented the Alpha Chi Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority at the AKA BOULE which was held in St. Louis, Missouri, December 26-31.

This boule is an annual event for all graduate and undergraduate chapters of the AKA sorority. At this time delegates come together to make plans for the coming year, discuss those of the past year, and elect officers for the incoming year. The highlights of this year's boule were the presentation by the St. Louis Opera Company and the National Pan Hellenic Council's Dance.

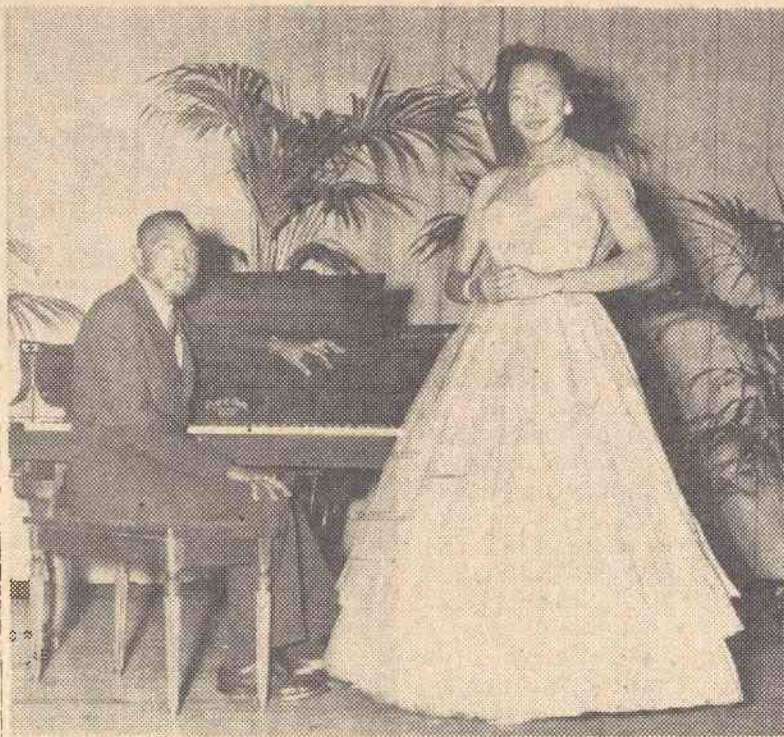

Miss Pauline Newton, an instructor in the English Department here, represented the local graduate chapter at this event.

Omega Chapter Fetes Brother

On December 11, 1953, the Tau Psi Chapter of Omega Phi Psi gave a farewell party for Jesse Allen, who was scheduled to leave for the Army the next day. The affair was held at the Goodwill Club.

It was here, among much gaiety, that Allen was toasted. Forty-five Delta's and Omega's were present. Among the 45 were 13 new Delta's who came off probation that day. After the source the merry makers serenaded the dormitories.

On the following day, December 12, the Tau Psi gave their annual Christmas banquet at the Donut Shoppe. Benjamin Smith, the guest speaker, used as his topic, "Stronger Unity Between Fraternity Men and Sorority Women."

Fifty-Nine N. C. College Students Now Doing Practice Teaching

Dr. C. L. Spellman, Director of Student Teaching at North Carolina College, announced last week that fifty-nine student teacher placements have been made for the Winter Quarter. The students have been placed in approximately fifteen schools in Durham and vicinity to complete their practice teaching requirements in order to receive an "A" certificate in the field of Education.

Among the sixteen schools at which NCC students have been placed are: Hillside High School, Durham; Merrick-Moore School, Durham; State School for the Blind, Raleigh; Mary Potter School, Oxford; Lincoln High School, Chapel Hill; and Central High School, Hillsboro. Practice work is being done in the fields of Biology, Music, History, Commerce, Home Economics, French, Mathematics, English, Health, Art, and Physical Education.

The student teachers are required to remain at their posts until March.

Kappa Alpha Psi Plans Smoker

Members of the Kappa Alpha Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity held a joint meeting with the Durham Alumni Chapter of the fraternity on January 21, to discuss plans for future fraternity affairs. Dean John L. Stewart, Polemarch of the Alumni Chapter presided over the combined group.

The Kappas have planned a smoker for the week-end of Jan. 29, for the entertainment of freshmen and unaffiliates. This affair will be sponsored by both the graduate and under-graduate chapters. The "Flying Saucers of 1954" will be presented in the B. N. Duke Auditorium in the near future and the proceeds will be contributed to the scholarship fund here at North Carolina College. The time and date for this affair will be announced later.

Alpha Kappa Chapter members are: James Smith, Polemarch; William Thomas, Linwood Bullock, Cornelius Eason, Horace Ward, George Gree and Frank Parker.

Miss Katie Lewis Sings In Raleigh

Katie Louise Lewis, senior Music major at NCC, was presented in the Fifth Annual Music Concert, "Stars of Tomorrow", sponsored by the Phi Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. Miss Lewis appeared with five other artists during December, in Raleigh at the Crosby-Garfield School Auditorium.

Miss Lewis is a native of Durham with voice as her performing medium. She is a graduate of Hillside High School where she was a member of the glee club for four years. For the three years she has been in college, Miss Lewis has been guest soloist for the Hillside National Honor Society. Since entering North Carolina College, she has been a member of the college choir.

In Raleigh, Miss Lewis sang Schuman's Widmung, Scarlatti's Sento nel core, Guy d'Hardelot's Without Thee, and Tchaikovsky's Adieu, forets from "Jeanne d'Arc." She was accompanied at the piano by Leon Nelson, a junior Music major. Both are students of Mrs. C. Ruth Edwards and Miss Ruth Gillum respectively.

MANNERS AGAIN

Following is a letter to the Forty-niner Long Beach (Calif) State College: "I thought last week's suggestion by one of your columnists...that the campus ladies be invited to view the alleged 'literary gems' to be found on the Walls in the men's rest room was in very bad taste. I questioned the boundaries of literary licenses exercised by the responsible columnist."

Music Ed. Club Maps New Plans

Lawrence Cooper, president of the Music Educators Club, recently announced the tentative program of the club for the remainder of the year. The objectives, as set forth by MEC members under the consultation of Mrs. C. Ruth Edwards, are:

1) Studying of various phases of music in the secondary schools; 2) Development of a voice clinic with Mr. James Wood of Duke University as chairman; 3) Presentation of outstanding guest speakers, and if possible, a speaker from the regional headquarters of the MEC; Entertainment of Music Artists who are scheduled to appear on the campus. The club members also hope to send delegates to the Music Educators National Conference to be held in Chicago, Illinois this year.

The club members have selected as their individual goal, the encouragement of student attendance at the musical activities and the Lyceum programs. Regular meetings are held each 2nd and 4th Saturdays at 11:30 A. M. in Room 104 in the Fine Arts Building.

Dartmouth College is planning a course to cover college history, present facilities and government, effective study, choosing courses and taking exams. Called "the Individual and the College," it would be offered to freshmen if approved.
