An Interesting Personality

By MARY MEBANE

Having been many places and done interesting things, Mrs. Nell Hunter, music librarian for the Department of Music, gives as a basic principle of her life, "a deep and sincere spiritual conscience."

Among the many places that Mrs. Hunter has been are London and Vienna, where, after graduating from the Chicago Conservatory of Music, she went to study voice. Mrs. Hunter's voice teacher in London was also Marian Anderson's teacher. After more than a year of training in Vienna, Mrs. Hunter was presented by her teacher in a recital in the Kontzerthaus in Vienna. Mrs. Hunter while in Vienna, slept in the same bed that Beethoven had at one time slept in!

Back in the United States, Mrs. Hunter gave a well-attended concert in Kimball Hall in Chicago. Continuing her career, she gave concerts all over the eastern part of the United States. Later she became the top soprano in the chorus of Marc Connelly's Green Pastures.

Mrs. Hunter became associated with the Federal Music Project as a choral director, and had the honor of directing her choral group for the King and Queen of England when they were visiting the White House in 1939. Other federal jobs include the job of choral director of the National Youth Administration.

Although they are seemingly incongruous with her varied and interesting career, housekeeping and cooking are Mrs. Hunter's favorite pastimes.

The Light refreshment

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER Luckies—and by a wide margin—according to the largest and latest coast-to-coast college survey. Once again, the No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. They taste better because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better. The pleasure you'll get from Luckies' better taste is vividly depicted in the Doodle above, titled: Modern artist enjoying Lucky while glancing in mirror. See the ecstatic smile? Well, you, too, can be happy. Just go Lucky!
