Woodland Junior Is YMCA Prexy

Theodore Cherry, Woodland junior has been elected president of the recently re-activated YMCA. There has not been a chapter of the association on NCC's campus for several years.

At a meeting of the "Y" on November 10, the officers for the forthcoming year were elected. In addition to the election of Cherry, other officers are Thomas H. Moore, Mount Bayou, Miss., vice-president; Lawrence Hampton, Leaksville, secretary; Roger Watson, Spring Hope, assistant secretary; Kelly Anderson, Greenville, treasurer; Robert M. Jones, Petersburg, Va., sergeant-at-arms; James Mc-Lean, Erwin, parliamentarian; and Charles Smith, Oxford, chaplain.

Other members of the YMCA are Frank M. Alston, Macon; William H. Anderson, Rocky Mount; Ronald Barber, Badin; Thomas E. Blue; James Carter, Maysville; Samuel Chambers, Carrboro; De Norris Crosby, Kings Mountain; Leo Doughtry, Kinston; James N. Davis, Mount Airy; Clyaton Fields, Carapeake; Willy Gause, Wilmington; Joseph Hannon, Lynn; Samuel Johnson, Goldsboro; Leroy Kelley, Goldsboro; Robert A. Miller, Winston-Salem; David L. Newsome, Edenton; Robert L. Stevenson, Kendrick, Fla.; Napoleon R. Vance, Winston-Salem; Charles Venable, Oxford; James E. Williams, Fayetteville; Ronald Wilson, Teachey; and Johnny Wooten, Greenville.

'Satchmo' Will Perform Here Next February

to go on sale early in the new tickets for students will be eral numbers. priced at $1.00. Reserve seats will be available at $1.50.

A record-breaking number of twenty seniors were recently selected to represent North Carolina College in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities" this year. Pictured above, they are, first row, left to right, Eleanor Williams, Ernestine Johnson, Yvonne Scruggs, Audrey Flamer, Doris Armstrong, Inez Wilkins; second row, Doris Edwards, Wilhelmenia Davis, Hattie Taylor, Percell Bowser, Marjorie Lennon, William Isler; third row, Gertrude Moore, Delaine Lee, May Mebane, Joseph Ray, Carl Hill, Charles Gittens, Arne Dupree, and Virginia Rush.

ACP Meet Draws 600 To Capitol

The Hotel Statler in Washington, D. C. was the scene of an exhaustive study of today's college newspapers on October 21-22. Six hundred and fifty delegates, representing colleges and universities in the United States and Hawaii, met during these two days to discuss their problems, listen to new ideas, and to hear some of the top-notch journalists of the day.

This was the 30th annual conference of the Associated Collegiate Press. During the two-day period, delegates had a choice of attending nearly sixty meetings, panels or short courses. These meetings covered every phase of journalism.

Fred L. Kildow, director of ACP, opened the convention with an invocation. Some of the outstanding journalists to speak at successive meetings were Roscoe Drummond, chief of the Washington Bureau of the New York Herald Tribune; John Tebbel, chairman, Department of Journalism, New York University; Narval Niel Tuxon, dean of the School of Journalism, the University of North Carolina; and Phillip Patter, Washington correspondent for the Baltimore Sun

The conference, hailed as the most successful in the history of ACP, ended Friday night with a banquet-dance in the Presidential Ballroom at which Johnny Shaw and his orchestra provided music.

W. Sherman Perry and Retha Hughes were the delegates from NCC.

Alston Appointed Lucky Strike 'Rep'

Frank Melvin Alston, Macon senior, has been selected by the Student Marketing Institute of New York to be The American Tobacco Company Campus Representative at North Carolina College.

As Campus Representative, he will be presenting members of the student body with sample packs of LUCKY STRIKE and

Twenty Top Students Are Elected To Who's Who In American Colleges And Universities For 54-55 A record-breaking number of est honors awarded to under-

Who's Who publication along with students from colleges and universities through-out the based upon the display of superior academic achievement and other contributions in leadership and participation in

The students will receive

Those selected from North Carolina College are Doris L.

Armstrong, New Bern; Percell

Bowser, Cofield; Wilhelmenia

Davis, Nashville; Florence Dupree, Sumter, S. C.; Doris Edwards, Pikesville; Audrey C.

extra-curricular activities.

keys as tokens of the honor.

vear.

Musical Ed. Club Releases Plans

At the regular monthly meeting of the Music Educators Club held last week, Miss Ethel Terry, secretary-treasurer, read the Club's objectives for the year.

The music majors plan to combine socially and professionally in order to (1) help each other gain proficiency in performance; (2) learn to know and understand each other; (3) help promote closer relations between the music faculty and the students.

Miss Alice Gray, chairman of The NCC Scholarship Com, the program committee, anmittee plans to present Louis nounced the program for the "Satchmo" Armstrong here in Harris and Leon Nelson will next meeting on Dec. 9. Hilde present voice and piano solos on Thursday, February 8, 1955. respectively. A barber shop Some 5000 tickets are slated quartet composed of two Duke University students and two year. Special general admission NCC students will render sevtwenty seniors were selected to represent North Carolina College in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities this Busy On Annual Recipients of one of the high-

The yearbook staff is "hard at work" on the 1954-55 EAGLE, graduate students, NCC's repreaccording to an announcement sentatives will appear in the from the co-editors' office.

The EAGLE staff, headed by co-editors Karl Bell, George United States. Selection is Griffin, and John Peele, plans to make this year's annual the best in the history of NCC, the announcement said.

Hampered by a limited budget, the editors are making every effort to get the best contracts available for all phases of work. The staff is making plans for publishing an annual costing nearly $8,000. However, only $5,850 was appropriated the EAGLE from the student government. The staff plans to supplement this amount with subscripions and advertisements. Flamer, Philadelphia, Pa.; Last year's annual cost over Charles L. Gittens, Durham; $7,400.

The 1955 EAGLE, according to PALL MALL cigarettes throughcontain one he editors, will hundred fifty pages, and new and varied photographs depicting activities of many students during the year. Many new features will be added to this year's annual.

Proceeds from the presentations will go to the NCC Scholarship Fund which helps needy students already enrolled at NCC.

here:

"The Louis Armstrong mandent self-help.

"The members of our committee are personally underwriting the project and many faculty members and students are volunteering their services to assure the success of the project.

"Louis Armstrong, of course, needs no introduction. He is the artist of international acclaim." and the Photography Club.

Robert Cheek, 1954 NCC grad

R. D. Russell, chairman of the uate, has been accepted by Scholarship Committee, which Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios annually solicits funds from the for a role in a coming produccampus community, said in an- tion, Miss Mary L. Bohannon, nouncing Mr. Armstrong's show NCC drama director, announced last week.

Cheek, who was known for agement has been most helpful his versatility when a student in permitting us to bring this here, starred in many producgreat American musician and tions during his undergraduate his show to our campus for the career. He is perhaps best rebenefit of our program of stu- membered in the lead role of Shakespeare's Hamlet.

> A chemistry major, Cheek's extra curricular activities were not confined to the stage. He was a three-year member of the choir. Last year he thrilled audiences throughout the country when he acted as narrator for the College Choir's rendition of Manhattan Towers.

Cheek, who resides in New world's foremost trumpeter, and York City with his mother, Mrs. one of the truly great jazz musi-| Sarah C. Pattillo, was also a cians of the world. He is an member of the Swimming Club

Johnson, Enfield; Delaine Lee Moncure; Marjorie Lennon, Wilmington; Mary Mebane Gertrude Moore Durham; Washington; Joseph Ray, Henderson; Virginia Rush, Pinehurst; Yvonne Scruggs, Buffalo, N. Y.; Hattie Taylor, Nashville; Inez Wilkins, Spring Hope; and Eleanor Williams, Washington.

Among those whose names appear on the Who's Who list are some of the outstanding lea+ ders on the campus.

Purcell Bowser, president of the senior class and vice president of the Beta Gamma chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha; Audrey Framer, Basileus of the Alpha Chi Chapter of the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority and captain of the Cheering Squad; Yvonne Scruggs, editor of the Campus Echo 1953-54, president of the Women's Steering Committee; Ernestine Johnson, president of the local chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority; Inez and vice-president of the Stu-Wilkins, president of the local chapter of Future Teachers of America; William Isler, president of the Mathematics Club Club.

professor who has served as advisor of the EAGLE for many this year.

The staff has as its temporary office room 206 of the administration building.

Dr. Thompson Attends Confab

Dr. Ray Thompson, counselor trainer, attended the Southern' Regional Conference State Supervisors of Guidance and Counselor Trainees at Buena Vista Hotel, Biloxi, Miss., Oct. 29 and 30. Dr. Thompson is a member of the Conference's Resolution Committee.

out the year to acquaint them with the qualities of these American Tobacco Company Products.

The representative will be glad to cooperate with campus organizations in planning college Mr. Caulbert Jones, history | floats, decorations, dances, parties, smokers, carnivals, booths, etc. He will also cooperate with years, will fill that position again | local campus stores to increase their cigarette sales.

> Alston will be participating in a professional, national campaign based on the "earn-while-youlearn" principle. He will be paid while he learns practical business techniques to supplement theory studied in the classroom. He was chosen after a careful screening process by an SMI Regional Supervisor and the SMI Faculty Supervisor. In addition to gaining valuable experience, the Campus Representative will receive a "Certificate of Commendation" describing his work for The American Tobacco

This Certificate, which is proof of marketing experience, dent Government; Carl Hill. has helped many former SMI president of the Commercial Representative secure excellent positions in the business world.

Company.