

More than one thousand persons filled North Carolina College's Duke Auditorium to capacity here last Sunday as Director Samuel W. Hall and the college's 85 voice mixed chorus presented their annual Ministry of Music. Saint-Saens' Oratorio was one of the highlights of the Christmas program.

Forty-Five Students Invade Greekdom During First Quarter 'Big' And 'Little Pro' Periods At NCC

Elder Attends Kentucky Meet

President Alfonso Elder attended the annual meeting of the Association for Colleges and Secondary Schools for Negroes, in Louisville, Kentucky from November 30 to December 2, 1954.

The main objectives of the three day session were (1) to provide an opportunity for colleges and high schools to come together to discuss problems of mutual concern; (2) to evaluate the qualities of high schools; and (3) to get the association to become an integrated association.

As a result of the third discussion, a committee, was formed by the Negro and the corresponding white association for the purpose of studying the problems of integrating the two associations.

While in Louisville Kentucky, a former student of NCC, Rev. Deedom E. Alston, took Dr. Elder on a tour of the city and made his trip enjoyable.

Dr. Carol Bowie Elected To Post

Dr. Carol C. Bowie, professor of psychology at North Carolina College, has been elected secretary of the North Carolina Family Life Association.

The North Carolina FLA is a statewide interracial organization with headquarters in Charlotte.

George A. Douglas is president of the FLA.

Dr. Bowie served for three years as consulting psychologist in a child guidance clinic in the Institute for Juvenile Research in Chicago. She has also served in a diagnostic court clinic in Chicago and for two years was clinical psychologist with the Veterans Administration at Tuskegee, Alabama.

Professor Bowie received her A.B. degree at Columbia University and her doctorate at the University of Chicago.

Forty-five North Carolina College students were on Greek probation lines during the first week of December. Eighteen of these students became full fledged members of a sorority or fraternity, while twenty-seven entered pledge clubs.

Blaine Smith, Kinston senior; Frank Alston, Macon junior; and Charles Hoffler, Hertford junior were initiated into Beta Gamma Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. Charles Strayhorne, Trenton junior; Robert Williams, Roxboro junior; James McLean, Erwin junior; Charles Plater, Wilson junior; and Otis Brooks, Chester, Pa. junior, were initiated into Tau Psi Chapter of the Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

TEN DELTAS

Alpha Lambda Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority has ten neophytes. They are Kitty Sneed, Durham junior; Janice Jones, Ahsokie junior; Dorothy Carraway, Kinston junior; Sherry Spencer, Washington junior; Nancy Lawhorn, Sumpter, S. C. junior; Ernestine James, Camden, S. C. junior; Emma Bullock, Tarboro junior; Edna Cooper, Durham junior; Lucille Reynolds, Asheville junior, and Willy Adams, La-Grange junior.

Entering the Scroller Club, pledge club of Alpha Kappa Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity were Norris Woolfolk, Lakeland, Fla., junior; Millard Young, Pensacola, Fla. junior; Herman Rollins, Durham sophomore; James O'Farrow, Washington sophomore; Lonnie Mauney, Statesville senior; Charles Holland, Durham sophomore.

THREE LAMPS

The Lampodas, pledge club of Tau Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, inducted three members. They were Sherman Perry, Langhorne, Pa. junior; Henry Fair, Washington sophomore; and James Simms, Smithfield sophomore.

Eighteen coeds were initiated into the Pyramid Club, pledge club of the Alpha Lambda Chapter of the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. They were Gwendolyn Andrews, Durham sophomore; Wyvonia Barnes, Walstanburg junior; Cherry Carter, North Harlowe junior; Rose Currin, Oxford Sopho-

Alphas Initiate Cultural Series

The Gamma Beta Chapter of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc. has begun a series of cultural events in order to promote a more cultural atmosphere on the campus.

The first of the series was a mock demonstration on how to eat an informal meal. This event was demonstrated with the cooperation of the Home Economics Club. The moderator of this demonstration was Miss Bernice Tyson. Other members of the club went through various demonstrations as Miss Tyson read the correct and incorrect way of eating.

Special emphasis was placed upon the informal breakfast and lunch. After the demonstration, there was a question and answer period. At this time members of the audience asked questions concerning various rules of eating the informal meal.

Members who took part in the demonstration were Lucy Brandon, Helen Coston, Mae Frances McPhail, Levon-De Grady, Christine Brown, Betty Patterson, Annie Pearl Isler, Ruth Leary, Portia Burt, and Bernice Tyson.

The second in this series of correct table manners will be held in January. At this time the demonstration will be centered around the buffet and formal dinners. The Alphas also plan to present a series of other cultural events during the school year 1954-55. There will be no admission charged to attend these events. All members of the college community are cordially invited.

more; Alder Derr, Hickory sophomore; Mary Freeman, Asheville junior; Shirley Green, Newport News, Va. junior; Retha Hughes, Fayetteville junior; Marva Johnson, sophomore; Omega Smith, Newport News, Va. sophomore; Martha Strickland, Clinton sophomore; Lois Tillery, Tarboro sophomore; Vernelle Thompson, Faison junior and Elizabeth Williams, Southport sophomore.

Before A Packed Audience

Choir Scores In Annual Concert

NCC's 85 voice mixed chorus presented its annual Ministry of Music on Dec. 12 in B. N. Duke Auditorium. The chorus was under the direction of Samuel W. Hill.

The traditional Christmas concert differed from past Christmas programs in that it did not include any selections from Handel's Messiah.

Singing for a full hour, the chorus gave a performance that elicited great emotional response.

The songs included in the 1954 Ministry of Music were Lighter's "Hark the Herald Angels Sing"; Malin's "If Ye Would Hear The Angels Sing"; and Lundguise's "Of The Father's Love Begotten."

Also performed was Saint-Saens' Christmas Oratorio with the following selections: "There were Shepherds, at Night, Abiding in the Fields"; "Patiently Have I waited for the Lord of Hosts."

Sidney Cowell's "Early American Carols" were rendered by the choir, including the following selections: "A Virgin Unspotted"; "The Shepherd's Star"; "Love Divine"; "Christ Was Born"; "Shepherds, Rejoice"; and "Emmanuel."

The last part of the program included Luvaas' "On the Mountain," and James' "Negro Bell Carol".

Pops' Weekend Dates Decided

Fathers' Weekend will be observed here February 19-20, according to an announcement from the Men's Dormitory Council.

The Council made this decision in its regular monthly meeting in room 203 of the Administration Building on Nov. 29.

It was also decided at that time to invite only fathers of students in the Undergraduate School. The invitations will be mailed by the last week in January, and further plans for the weekend will be developed in later meetings.

Members of the Council present at the November 29th meeting were Frank Alston, Valeria Berry, Theodore Cherry, Solomon Dukes Jr., Henry Fair, Andrew Fellers, Robert Grant, Lawrence Hampton, Joseph H. Hannon, Ivan McCaskill, Connia H. Watson, Robert C. Williams, and Chairman John L. Stewart.

Senior Co-Eds Cop Winners Cup For Annual Christmas Sing Here

The women of the Senior Class walked away from the Annual Christmas Sing last Saturday with the Winner's Cup. This is the second consecutive year that the women of the Class of '55 have won the trophy.

Annie Day Shepard Dormitory occupants copped the honorable mention prize. The Christmas Sing is a traditional affair sponsored by the Women's Assembly and Dean Latham.

The young women in Rush Hall worked hard in a effort to make sure that the cup, which has been in Rush Hall for the last couple of years, remained in Rush Hall. Last year's winning occupants of Rush Hall, now in the Senior Dormitory, worked equally as hard in an effort to keep the cup in their class. The freshmen and sophomore dormitories strove to bring the victory to their respective dormitories.

City students were not represented this year as a separate groups but participated with the different dormitories according to classification.

Songs sung by the Freshmen Dormitory included "White Christmas," "Winter Wonderland," "The First Noel," and "The Happy Wonderer." Vivian Young directed them. Dorothy Cortening was the accompanist and Andras Carter the assistant accompanist.

McLeanites directed by Carole Hendricks and accompanied by Robert Jones sang "Angels We Have Heard On High," "Smile," "Carol of the Bells," and "For All We Know."

The songs from Rush Hall were "Star of the East," and "The Bells Tails." Paula Bennett was the directress and Clara Wertz was the accompanist.

Wither Thou Goest," "Angels From the Realms of Glory," "Hernando's Hide Away," and "Twas The Night Before Christmas," were sung by the senior dormites under the direction of Audrey Flamer and accompaniment of Georgia McCoy.

The celebration was topped off by the singing of "I Believe" as a tribute to Dean Latham. It was sung by the combined group of all the dormitories.

Following the Christmas Sing, there were parties in all of the dormitories.

DUKE POWER COMPANY

Corner Mangum and Parrish Streets
Durham, North Carolina

A Complete Electric Service and Street Transportation

TELEPHONE 2-1151