Summer School Slates Top Profs. All Students Eligible To Attend

Several of the country's outing scholars will teach in the Summer School as visiting professors from other institutions, Dr. J. H. Taylor, Director, announced today.

Dr. Taylor also announced the dates of the three summer sessions as June 7-July 30, regular; June 7-July 14, workshops and institutes; and August 1-17, post

New Music Prof. To Speak Sunday

Dr. Paul Koepke, professor of music at NCC, will be the guest speaker on Sunday evening for the "This Is Your Faculty" forum program. The forum will be held in the Browsing Room of the James E. Shepard Library at 6:p.m.

This will be the second of a series of programs that are being presented by the Tau Psi Chapter of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Alpha Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta, the Pyramid Club and the Lampodas Club.

The Greek letter organizations instituted the series in March, hoping that more students would become better acquainted with their faculty members.

After Dr. Koepke's talk, an informal discussion will follow, at which time those present may ask Dr. Koepke questions. Refreshments will be served in the Faculty Lounge.

Dr. Koepke did his undergraduate work at Heidelberg University in Ohio and received his Ph. D. from State University of Iowa.

The college community is invited to participate in Sunday's Forum.

NOTICE

All senior students who have not completed requirements for graduation by the end of this quarter will not be able to march with the class of 1955.

session.

Among the visiting professors will be Dr. John B. Ervin, professor of education, Harris Teachers College, Saint Louis, Missouri, education; Mrs. Lual-gia P. Ferguson, librarian, Greensboro Public Schools, library science; Dr. John Hope Franklin, professor of history, Howard University, history; Dr.
Marguerite S. Frierson, professor of education, Fayetteville State Teachers College, education; Mrs. Neutrice W. Merritt, librarian, Clinton City Schools, library science; and Mrs. Ethel-ynne H. Thomas, Durham City Schools, special education.

According to Dr. Taylor, the several workshops and institutes now slated include those in Health Education, Reading, Resource Use Education, Social Science, Audio-Visual Education, and Alcoholic Education.
There will also be a Principals' Workshop, a Seminar in Inter-Group Relations, and an Institute for Juvenile and Probation Workers.

The announcement from the Summer School office also called attention to the fact that special permission for students to attend the Summer School is no longer required. All students in good academic standing may attend.

In addition to the extensive academic offering, the Summer School will also feature a lyceum series and a full recreation program, under the supervision of Mrs. Willa W. Lewis. Such activities as softball, swimming, table tennis, picnics and movies will be included in the round of extra-curricular programs, Dr.
Taylor said.

Language Prof. Gets Study Grant

Dr. Raleigh Morgan Jr., chairman of the Department of French, has received a grant from the American Council of Learned Societies to study African and Arabic linguistics and practical application of linguistics to language teaching at the Linguistic Institute, Georgetown University, Washington, D. C.

Dr. Morgan's work will cover an eight week period, from June 20 to August 10. At Georgetown he will be listed as "guest Ph.D.," and will have use of all the facilities of the university necessary in the conduct of his research. He will return to NCC in September.

This is the second grant Dr.
Morgan has received from the Students Go To Polls Today

W. SHERMAN PERRY
... for S. G. President

WADE KORNEGAY
... for S. G. President

Seven candidates have thrown their hats into the ring to vie for the offices of president and vice-president of the Student Government and Editor-in-Chief of the CAMPUS ECHO in today's election. Eight days of concentrated campaigning have preceded the final phase of ballot-casting for those who will be at the SG and Echo helms during the 1955-56 school year.

Seeking the offices of SG prexy and vice-prexy on the Co-Operative Party ticket are Wade Kornegay and Frank Alston, respectively. Kornegay, from Mount Olive, is presently vice-president of the junior class and is a chemistry major.
He is a member of Beta Kappa Chi Honor Society, the NAACP, and of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. Kornegay served as president of his class during his sophomore year and has been a member of the Student Congress since his freshman year.

Alston is dean of pledges of the Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, a member of the Men's Dormitory Council, the Y.M.C.A., and of the Religious Activities Committee. He is an accounting major from Warrenton, N. C.

Fusing stiff opposition to the Co-Operative candidates are Sherman Perry and Henry Fair, running on the Liberal Party Ticket. Perry, the presidential candidate of the pair, is a veteran from Langhorne, Pa., and has served during this year as Editor-in-Chief of the CAMPUS ECHO. He is presently speaker pro-tempore of the Student Congress, president of the junior class, and a member of the Advisory Board of the Student Government. A member of Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Perry is a psychology major and a biology minor.

Also a veteran, and hailing from Washington, N. C., Fair is serving as president of the sophomore class and also of the Men's Dormitory Council. He is a member of the Student Congress and of the College Choir. Fair is majoring in political science.

Grads Will Hear Diplomat, Cleric

The Honorable Capus Miller Waynick and Dr. J. H. Jackson have been announced as the Commencement Day and Baccalaureate Service speakers respectively, at North Carolina College's thirtieth commencement exercise. The activities will begin, May 27 and end on May 31 with Commencement.

Mr. Waynick, a native of Rockingham County, North Carolina, is the United States Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to Nicaragua and the Acting Administrator of the Four Point Program. He has served as Chairman of the National Democratic Party and as a member of both the House of Representatives and the Senate. He attended the University of North Carolina.

Dr. Jackson is pastor of Mt.
Olive Baptist Church of Chicago, Ill., and President of the National Baptist Convention.

Offer Law Prize

The Lawyers Title Foundation of Richmond, Va., has made $100 in cash available to the North Carolina College Law School for the graduating senior who makes the highest grades in Real Property over a three year period.

Dean Albert L. Turner of the Law School said the recipient of the award would be determined by commencement time.
Dean Turner added that his information on the award and a check for $100 had come from James T. Knight of Richmond, vice president of the Lawyers Title Foundation.

American Council of learned Societies. In 1953 he received a similar grant to study Creolized languages at the University of Indiana. The result of his study at that institution is expected to appear in a forthcoming edition of the Linguistic Society Bulletin under the title of "Possible Influence of African Languages on Creole Languages."

An interesting side light on Dr. Morgan's stay in Washington is the fact that he and Dr.
John Hope Franklin, professor of history at Howard, who formerly taught here, will exchange homes for the summer.
Dr. Franklin will be guest professor on the NCC summer staff.
