Now that the Flu epidemic which invaded our campus a few weeks ago is on the decline, the Student Government wishes to apologize for the lull in social activities which was caused by the epidemic. We are glad that healthier days are here again, and greatly appreciate the swell co-operation on the part of the student body during the epi-

S.G. is now formulating plans for establishing a Student Government Student Loan. The Student Loan will make funds available to students for practice teaching and other purposes connected with academic train-

Plans are being made to sponsor concert programs, to obtain the use of the concession stands in the gymnasium during the basketball season and on the Athletic Field during the Homecoming game, and to publish programs for the Homecoming game in order to raise funds for the Student Loan. However, these activities alone will not be sufficient to raise the money required to establish a Student

S.G. believes that if each student contributes one dollar toward the establishment of the Student Loan, we can accomplish this goal without much difficulty. We would like to have the reaction of the student body to this plan and in the form of letters to S.G.

Plans are also being made by the Student Government to join the United States National Student Association. This organization is composed of student associations throughout the nation that are associated to give consideration to questions of mutual concern. The United States National Student Association is a non-partisan, non-sectarian, nonprofit, student run, educational association. We hope to become affiliated with this organization this year.

NAACP'ers Slate Nov. 9 Meeting

As a follow-up of the recent State convention in Charlotte, NCC's chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will hold its first meeting of the year November 9 in the Moot Court Room of the Law School Building.

The meeting is called for 10:30, according to Iris Grant, president of the local chapter and delegate to the Charlotte meeting. All students and faculty members are invited, she said.

Iris, a senior from Winston-Salem, said the November 9 meeting will feature reports of NAACP objectives and will take the form of a planning session for the year. She is also expected to discuss some of the highlights of her attendance at the convention in Charlotte.

According to Iris, youth and college chapters of the NAACP from all over the State sent representatives to the convention. Actually, they formed a kind of "Junior group" to the adult NAACP program.

Activities of the youth of the convention included discussions of local and national problems and solutions and election of new officers, and workshops. There were also social affairs.

Persons featured on the convention program included main speakers Kelly Alexander, State President; Roy L. Wilkins, NAACP executive secretary; and Thurgood Marshall, Chief Counsel of NAACP, and known widely as "Mr. Civil Rights."

Other participants on the platforms, panels, and seminar groups included C. O. Pearson, State Chairman of the Legal Redress Committee; W. R. Saxon, vice president, North Carolina; Clarence Mitchell, director, Washington, Bureau; Robert L. Carter, General Counsel; Gloster B. Current, Director of Branches; Dr. Edward J. Odom, Jr., National Church Secretary; Herbert L. Wright, National Youth Secretary; J. S. Stewart, Congressional District Chairman, and Attorney Thomas H. Wyche, chairman of the Charlotte Branch Legal Committee.
