

Negro Folklorist Publishes Book

A second book by J. Mason Brewer, author of "The Word on the Brazos," has been published by the University of Texas Press.

Entitled "Dog Ghosts," the book is a collection of tales by one of America's leading Negro folklorists. Dr. Brewer is chairman of the division of English Language and Literature at Houston-Tillotson College in Austin.

Religious tales, farm and ranch, animal tales, and others difficult to classify have been collected by Dr. Brewer and included in the book.

Eight illustrations by John T.

Biggers, head of the art department at Texas Southern University, Houston, are included. The foreword was written by Dr. Chapman J. Milling, folklorist, historian, and poet of Columbia, S. C.

Jet magazine had this to say about "The Word on the Brazos:"

"For humor or pathos, soberness or sarcasm, the preacher tales stir the reader..."

"The book is a welcomed contribution of a new set of Negro college professors, who are using their skills to unearth Negro Americana."

Sampson To Head Durham UNCF Drive

A Morehouse College graduate now a professor of law at North Carolina College has been chosen to direct the 1959 appeal in the Durham area for the United Negro College Fund.

Daniel G. Sampson, member of the N. C. College law school faculty, will be chairman of the Durham Inter Alumni Council's forthcoming campaign for funds for the UNCF, it was announced this week.

Announcement of Sampson's appointment to direct next year's drive came with reports of the election of officers for the Council for the year and results of last year's fund campaign.

The Rev. J. W. Smith, pastor of the Covenant Presbyterian Church, was elected president of the Council. Smith served as last year's campaign chairman.

Sampson was elected vice-president.

Others elected were Mrs. Marian Spaulding, secretary; I. O. Funderburg, treasurer; Ronald C. Foreman, Jr., publicity director; and N. B. White, regent.

White was acting president last year in the place of H. M. Holmes.

A total of $2,921 was raised in last year's campaign, it was revealed at the Council's annual meeting last year.

The new campaign chairman, Sampson, came to North Carolina College in 1950. A native of Sumter, S. C., he received the A. B. degree from Morehouse, a master's degree from Atlanta University and the L.I.B. from Boston University.

He is a member of the N. C. State Bar, the Southeastern Lawyers Association, and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity.

The Inter Alumni Council is composed of 50 members representing alumni organizations of the 33 United Negro college schools in the area. The national campaign is scheduled to get underway in April.

Art Satterfield

(continued from page 1)
viser to the Eagle last year.

Other students working with Satterfield include Joseph Carter, business manager, assisted by Charles McNeil; Flora Snipes, chairman of the copy and proofreading staff; Sylvia Baskerville, chairman of the portrait department; and Joyce Johnson, chairman of the typing staff.

Former Student

(continued from page 1)
Samuels' blow caused the stick to fly from his hands and fall beneath the football bleachers.

After recovering his stick from the bleachers, Samuels along with other policemen, dragged McCaskill from the gathering crowd and later handcuffed his hands behind his back while he was on the ground. McCaskill's clothing was damaged to a great extent as a result of the officer's actions.

During the action, a Carolina Times photographer and writer Alexander De Veaux, II, was deliberately struck by an officer because he attempted to photograph the treatment that McCas-

For Christmas:

(Continued from page 3)

Seagrams' V. O. . . . In a robe of satin splendor . . . The world's leading Canadian Whiskey in Seagram's Centennial Luxury Satin. Give Seagram's and be sure.

One Scotch Stands Out — Give the lighter . . . drier . . . smoother Scotch.

This season, give welcome gifts of VAT 69 Scotch in the beautiful Merit Cartons.

Bell's The Celebration Scotch. When bells ring . . . or when the bell rings, bring out your best, your Bell's, the Celebration Scotch.

Let White Horse carry you lightly through the holiday season. Have plenty of White Horse for yourself, your guests . . . and for gifts.

For the children, since Christmas is for children, too, how about a five-foot candy cane?

If you are still nonplussed about gifts for your loved ones, if they really have everything, then French & Co., of New York, one of the world's largest dealers in antiques and works of art, solves your problem with its special gift sale.

How about a large oil altarpiece fragment of St. John the Evangelist in a landscape, attributed to the youthful Michelangelo, reduced from $250,000 to $200,000 (for your wife or your mother maybe).

If you are a wife, would you like an early-sixteenth-century Spanish retable, formerly in the Cathedral of Toledo, marked down from $200,000 to $150,000 for your husband? Or the panelling of one of Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt's old drawing rooms, slashed from $40,000 to $32,000 (for an old maid aunt or maybe for grandmother. Furniture and fixtures are extra). Or a bronze horse, eight inches long, conceivably by Leonardo da Vinci, for younger sister's homework desk, now only $9,375 an inch but it was more. Or Francis Scott Key's mahogany-and-gilt mirror, nineteenth-century American, down from $2,500 to $1,950, for younger brother's first efforts to knot a bow tie. Or an Empire bed used by Napoleon, reduced from $10,000 to $6,500, (for a friend with imperial aspirations perhaps). For those you love enough to give the very best, who really have everything, French & Co. is your baby.

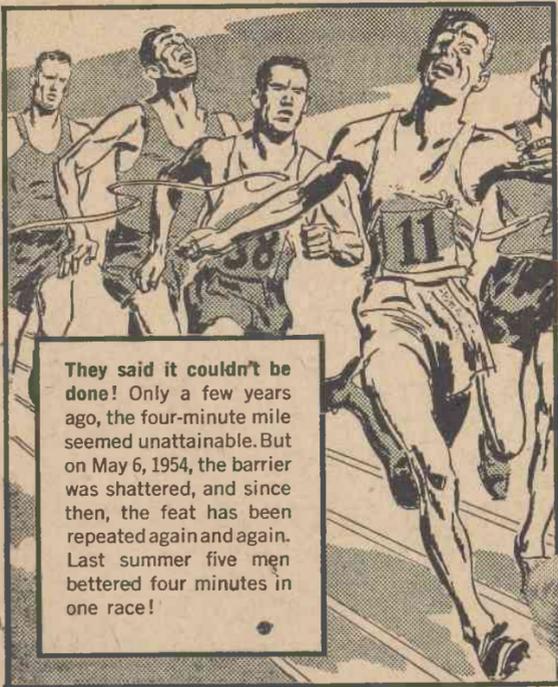

kill was receiving. De Veaux's press camera was damaged extensively and taken by a police officer.

A North Carolina College photographer was able to capture the action without being reached by the officer who damaged DeVeaux's camera. See the picture on page three.

A feeling of resentment was aroused among some students here to the extent that they circulated a petition against the police department; however, nothing resulted from the petition.

THEY SAID IT COULDN'T BE DONE-BUT TODAY'S L'M GIVES YOU-

Puff by puff Less tars & More taste

DON'T SETTLE FOR ONE WITHOUT THE OTHER!

Change to L'M and get 'em both. Such an improved filter and more taste! Better taste than in any other cigarette. Yes, today's L'M combines these two essentials of modern smoking enjoyment—less tars and more taste—in one great cigarette.

LIGHT INTO THAT LIVE