Dorm Directress To Retire

Mrs. Ada L. Montgomery, house directress at McLean Hall, announces that she will retire at the end of the present school term.

A directress since coming here on September 1, 1950, she has previously served as dormitory directress at Howard University.

Mrs. Montgomery taught school in Oklahoma for 26 years, where she received an A.B. degree in English at Langston University in 1924. She audited classes at Kansas State Teachers College, and in 1937 studied at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois.

She states: "I have no particular plans as of yet. But I will go to Tulsa, Oklahoma."
