

That oughta hold 'em! The faces of these coeds show approval of an Eagle effort during the Allen-NCC tilt on O'Kelly field. The pay incidentally, was not a touchdown, but an extremely long punt by Pryor, which left the visitors struggling underneath the goal posts. The Eagles won 22-0.

NCC Eagles Score Victory Over Trojans

The North Carolina College Eagles overcame a 14-7 half-time deficit by scoring three times in the final half and whipping previously unbeaten Virginia State, 27-14.

NCC scored first on a pass interception when James Brewington blocked a Virginia State pass and knocked it up in the air. End Charlie Cox snatched the loose ball and scattered 25 yards for the Eagles' first score. Pryor kicked the extra point.

Virginia State struck back when two passes from Dewayne Jeter to end Charles McGuire set up the Trojans at the NCC four-yard line. Fullback Ernest Turner carried it over from the two and Jeter kicked the extra point to tie it at 7-7. A 34-yard pass from Eddie Parham to brother Sam, a pass from Jeter to Sidney Swann, and a bootleg play by Jeter scored V-State's second tally. Jeter kicked the extra point to put Trojans ahead 14-7 at intermission.

The Eagles came back strong in the second half. A bad snap from center set up their second touchdown when they took over on the Trojan's 41. Quarterback Hicks galloped to the four, then sneaked over from the one. The kick failed and Virginia State still led at 14-13.

But the final quarter saw the roof cave in on the Trojans, as North Carolina College scored twice. The Eagles gambled on a fourth down play from their own 40 and made it, then drove to the Virginia State's one where Richard Wilkins bulled over to put them ahead 19-14. Then Browning picked off a desperation Virginia State pass and ran 30 yards to ice it 25-14 for the Eagles.

Eagles Bow To Maryland State

Maryland State College unveiled an array of speedy backs and legged out a 27-8 decision over North Carolina College Eagles Saturday, October 21, on O'Kelly Field.

From the opening moments the Hawks displayed their tremendous speed, but could not maintain early scoring drives against the rock-hard Eagle line. The first period was a scoreless see-saw, but a last-second fumble by Hicks on his four-yard stripe set up the first Maryland touchdown, as fullback Johnny Holmes opened the second quarter by dashing the six yards for the score. The extra-point kick was good for a 7-0 Maryland lead.

Following the kickoff, the Eagles found the Hawk line somewhat stubborn. The defenders rushed in to deflect a pass by quarterback Hicks deep in his own territory. Maryland's Hobbs snagged the loose aerial and trotted into the end zone with the second marker. The PAT was blocked and the visitors led 13-0.

Later in the period fleet halfback Danny Miller maneuvered past the Eagle line and swept fifty-five yards down the sideline and into the end zone. Van Ness' kick was good for a 20-0 halftime lead.

In the third quarter the Eagles, plagued by penalties all afternoon, got going on a Hicks-to-Woods pass that was good for fifty yards. Halfback Wilkins capped the drive with a six-yard plunge through the Hawk line. Hicks found a hole for the 2-point conversion. Third quarter score: Maryland State 20; NCC 8.

The Hawks picked up an insurance tally in the final period when Miller intercepted an Eagle pass and galloped 70 yards, going into the end zone on his feet. The extra point attempt was good and the visitors led 27-8.

The Eagles approached paydirt again in the final period on a brilliant combination of short runs and short passes that brought them into the "goal to go" area. A long penalty, however, carried them back to the Maryland 25 and there the drive ended, as did the ball game.

The next home game is scheduled for Saturday, November 12, when Virginia Union University invades O'Kelly field for the homecoming celebration. Kick-off time: 1:30 P.M.

Eagles Blank St. Aug., 22-0

An alert, hard-charging defense, coupled with some superior punting, carried the North Carolina College Eagles to a 22-0 whitewash of the St. Augustine's Falcons on Saturday, October 8 on muddy O'Kelly Field.

Held scoreless throughout the first quarter by the scrappy Falcons, the Eagles began rolling toward their first conference win early in the second period when end Bob Currington moved in to block Falcon Bob Headon's punt and recover it himself on the St. Augustine seven-yard line. Two plays later fullback Ray Nobles bulled four yards for the score. Quarterback Reginald Pryor's extra-point kick was wide by inches and the Eagles led 6-0.

The visitors, kept deep in their own territory by Pryor's long kicks, suffered another blocked punt in the same quarter as tackle Nick Jerals broke through to slap away Headon's try from the Falcon two-yard stripe. Defensive back Bishop Harris buried the rolling ball in the end zone for the second Eagle touchdown. Halfback Rossie Barfield sped into the end zone for the two points and a 14-0 halftime lead.

In the third period the Eagle defense continued its Spartan performance as giant tackle Elmer McMillan blocked a St. Augustine punt from the one-yard line of the Falcons. Freshman guard Bobby Gardner recovered in the end zone for the third Eagle tally. Quarterback Richard Hicks stole around the right side for the extra points and a 22-0 score.

In the final period the Eagle reserves thwarted every attempt of the desperate Falcons to get into the scoring column, and the final gun ended a dismal afternoon for the Raleigh club.
