

Manning, a Baltimore, Maryland, senior who recently topped the CIAA in individual scoring, tallied 40 points against the Broncos.

Manning Tops CIAA Scoring List

NCC's Ted Manning, is currently leading the scoring list in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association with an average of 25.5 points per game for 13 outings.

The 6-4 sharpshooting Baltimore, Md., native and graduate of that city's Carver High School, has made 140 field goals and been successful with 52 out of 76 free throw attempts for a total of 332 points.

Manning is a 205-pound junior, is also listed in two other categories in the most recent report from the official CIAA statistician. He holds second place in single game scoring with 45 points, being topped only by Thomas Morris of St. Paul's College with 50. Manning earned his 45 tallies by making 18 field goals and nine free throws in NCC's 110-100 victory over Shaw University on December 12 in Raleigh.

With 207 rebounds, 50 more than the second highest player, he tops numerically the rebound category, but on the percentage basis—the league's official mode of reckoning—he is in fifth place with 15.9
