

STANBACK, from page one

nity and are causing deterioration of a significant segment of our young people.

Much like drug usage, Stanback says that campus violence needs to be curbed and that guns are too readily available.

"Campus violence and student deaths are no doubt unfortunate, but life on campus is an extension of life in our communities," said Stanback. "Community involvement is necessary in order to control crime in our city and involvement of the college community is necessary to curb crime on campuses. Law enforcement can not do it alone".

Stanback also commented on education in today's society and expressed that serious students will usually excel, others will eventually be weeded out and those who genuinely want to learn will learn.

The Campus
Echo is looking for feature stories, if you have any ideas or
questions,
let us know.

WHITE HOUSE, from page one chitecture, a lobbying group in Washington. Allison accepted a paid internship with AIA for the rest of the summer and was invited back for next summer.

This summer was the first time NCCU was invited to the White House Internship program. The internship is six weeks long, and the cost, $2,500, was paid by the university and the NCCU Alumni Association.

Allison, Dobbins and Krind all said that the work was long and hard, but well worth it. Dobbins said, "It was a once in a life time experience, and I really appreciate the chance to go."

Qualifications for the internships include academic achievement, community service, and personal interests. The procedure for selecting NCCU students should be formalized by spring semester. Students interested in interning next summer should pick up applications from the Career Planning and Placement office. Peggy Watson-Borden, director of CPP, can answer questions and help guide students.

New Advice Column

Having problems?

School getting to be too much for you?
Beginning to wonder whether you should dump your boyfriend?
Has your roommate finally gone too far?

Feeling lonely?
Bewitched?
Bothered?
Or just bewildered?
Don't suffer alone!

Write "Dear Lala," the Echo's new advice columnist.

Address letters to The Campus Echo, c/o The Department of English or bring letters to room 319 in the Communications Building.

Lala may not solve all your problems,
but she will make suffering through them more fun.

CO-OP/CAREER FAIR

Workshops:
A. E. Student Union
Monday, October 4
3:00-7:30 P.M.

Fair:
McLendon-McDougald Gymnasium
Tuesday, October 5
10 - 4 P.M.

Bring your resumes
Workshops:

MONDAY

3:00 - 4:00 pm Federal Career Opportunities
3:30 - 4:15 pm How To Market Yourself and To Communicate Better
4:15 - 5:00 pm Preparing for The Professional World
These workshops will be presented to share helpful information on business ethics and preparation for the business world.

Co-op Panel Discussion

5:00 - 6:30 pm A panel of employers and students will exchange information regarding cooperative education. Students will also talk about their work experiences.
6:30 - 7:30 pm Reception sponsored by Sheraton University Center
Participants who are interested in attending any of the workshop sessions should contact The Career Planning & Placement Center for additional information.

TUESDAY

9:00 am Registration
9:30 am - 10:00am Set-up/Continental Breakfast
10:00am Open to students and public
12 noon - 2:00 pm Lunch (for recruiters)
2:00 - 4:00 pm Fair continuation/wrap up

Confirmed companies include:

Glaxo
Roche Biomedical
U.S. Gov. Agencies
Sprint - Carolina Telephone
SAS Institute

Blue Cross Blue Shield of NC
Law Enforcement Agencies
NC State Agencies
Financial Institutions and Others

North Carolina Central University

Career Planning & Placement Center

