Campus

NORTH CAROLINA CENTRAL UNIVERSITY

Parking lot in between old Baynes Residence Hall and McLean Residence Hall. The lot is one of 22 reserved lots on campus. RODERICK HEATH/Echo Photo Editor

5-0 nix after 7 p.m. parking

Evening parking in reserved lots is a thing of the past

BY EBONY McQUEEN ECHO STAFF WRITER

Students thinking they can park in reserved campus lots after 7 p.m. without getting a ticket better think again.

According Central University police Captain Victor Ingram the department is now enforcing a 24/7 policy in reserved lots.

"At one point, we allowed students to park in reserved lots overnight, but they had to move their car by 7 a.m.," said Ingram.

Ingram said one of the easons for the stricter enforcement is because students often failed to

Christian Student

Fellowship Meeting

Thursday, Sept. 21 at 5 p.m.

525 Nelson Street (adjacent to the BBRI bldg.)

Get involved in: Mission Opportunities Upcoming Retreats • Worship

• Bible Study • Liturgical

Dance

Attend PrepSuccess™ exam

prep courses during the evenings or weekends throughout the triangle, or access the live web

ings. One low price of $420 - cast or streaming video record-

$699 gets you 36 - 60 hours of classroom instruction plus FREE

tutoring and mentoring after each class. We also offer tutoring services in trigonometry, pre-calculus,

calculus, physics, and differential equations.

morning leaving faculty and administrators without parking.

Ingram said the best solution for students is simply to keep their cars in their designated lots while on campus.

"We need to try and utilize the space we do have efficiently," said Ingram.

But some students are seeing things differently.
"I feel that students should be able to park free after 7 p.m. because there is not enough parking on campus," said psychology senior Tereka Taylor.

According to Ingram security officers are now traffic in charge of enforcement, not campus move their cars in the police. Ingram explained

Michael D. Page

Campus Minister

United Christian

Campus Ministry

525 Nelson Street, NCCU Campus

Travel with Campus Ministry for a Collegiate Spiritual Retreat and Convention Sept. 29-30 to Clemmons, NC. Cost is only $12.

> To get involved in Campus Ministries contact us

at 530-6380 or e-mail us at mpage@nccu.edu

GRE, GMAT, LSAT, MCAT, TOEFL

Advance your career with a graduate degree!

Visit www.PrepSuccess.com or call 919-791-0810

that this move was done to relieve police officers from writing parking tick-

This change allows police officers to patrol the campus instead of writing tickets.

"It would be nice if we had a traffic unit, but that would require more personnel," said Ingram.

Some students are surprised to find out that revenue from parking tickets revenues does not end up with NCCU.

In a 2005 court case the N.C. Supreme Court decided in favor of the North Carolina School Boards Association to grant all parking fine revenues to local school districts.

RADUATION

& YEARBOOK

PORTRAITS

WHEN: Sept 24 - Sept 29, 2006

Rm 144 A-B

SENIOR SITTING FEE: S3

UNDERGLASSMEN: FREE

WHERE: Alphonso Edler Student Union

NLORS AVOID THE WALT MAKE AN APPOINTMENT

WISDING OUR WEBSITE www.photomagicile.com.

"I understand the public schools need the money, but we need parking lots fixed, and a parking deck," said senior business management major Stakesha St. Clair.

According to the matter is not settled and NCCU may ultimately get to keep a portion of the parking

"It would be nice of them," said Ingram. "We could sure use it for cam-

Ingram said in the event of an emergency exceptions can be made.

"Call us," "Depending on urgency of the situation, we can make exceptions.'

SUN 3pm -until, MON-WED 10am-5pm

THURS 10am-8pm, FRI 10am - 5pm

Hip hop to enrich curriculum

Summit, record label in works

By Shinese Anderson ECHO STAFF WRITER

Hip hop is taking a new direction at N.C. Central University, climbing to new heights going beyond the classroom.

In a Tuesday press conference, Chancellor James H. Ammons announced the launch of a new Hip Hop Initiative which offers a scholarly approach to the music form that University officials believe could provide new opportunities to at-risk males.

The initiative plans to branch off into four different components — a class called "Hip Hop in Context" accompanied with a lecture series, a Hip Hop Summit scheduled for Feb. 9-10, 2007, a record label, and continuing education

"We plan to offer alternatives to hip hop letting students know that it is not all about sex, drugs, and gangs," said Ammons.

Kawachi Clemons, coordinator of NCCU's music industry program, plans to develop programs that will provide primary and secondary teachers with ways classrooms.

The plan is to address the University's mission through the Hip Hop Summit according to

Clemons. "We favor a student center approach in planning the Hip Hop Summit," he

Business, marketing and art students will be involved by helping plan, budget and market the sum-

Eagle Records is another component in the Hip Hop Initiative, a student record label which plans to expose students to marketing and

"Eagle Records also plans to produce music videos, musical production, and educational programs online and face-to-face," said Clemons.

Race, gender, youth, and class are few issues the Hip Hop in Context class takes

The class, which was introduced this semester, surveys the history of hip hop from its beginnings in 1967 through 1997, the year that Biggie died.

It also explores social consciousness and the comto use the genre in their mercialism of hip hop.

RANKING

CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1

Mitchell Webson, a mass communication junior said, 'I think it's a good thing that Central made the list; it's a slow process, but a process that is happening.'

Lolethia Underdue, General Manager for Audio Net, said, "Central has done an outstanding job to be in the top 50. I expect it will be even higher next year."

Chancellor James H. Ammons said that being on the list confirms that NCCU is doing things right.

A comprehensive program has been put in place to increase academic, graduation, and social scores, with an emphasis on closing the gap for students with the highest financial need.

"Many are leaving because they run out of money," said Ammons.

In addition to finding more financial resources,

NCCU has created a living and learning environment that brings students together to study in their dorms.

In an effort to improve the intellectual climate, public figures such as Cornell West, Michael Eric Dyson, ... and Dennis Kimbrel have all been invited and visited the campus.

Furthermore, academic advising has been intensified, and students are attending overseas programs in Lybia, Kenya, and South Africa. Soon they will be able to study in Ghana.

"We are going to keep working away until we get to the top of the list," Ammons said. "It is significant. Being an HBCU, you want to be on the list." He said that he was surprised at some of the outstanding colleges that didn't make the list.

RATING OF TOP COLLEGES FOR AFRICAN AMERICANS

Ranked below are only the public HBCUs, not predominantly white private institutions, such as Duke, or predominantly African African American private institutions, such as Hampton.

Rank	School	Social score	Academic score	Grad. rate
1	FAMU	44.2	43.8	46%
2	Howard	43.3	42.6	62%
3	NCA&T	42.0	41.6	43%
17	Tenn. St.	40.0	39.6	47%
27	Prairie View	38.8	38.8	46%
28	Jackson St.	40.0	38.5	40%
30	NCCU	38.1	40.0	50%
34	Morgan St.	40.4	38.8	39%

We're Here, and We Can Help.

Pregnancy Support Services 3700 Lyckan Parkway, Suite D Durham, NC 27707 (919) 490-0203

www.pregnancysupport.org Pregnancy tests

CARE NET

First trimester ultra sound Testing for Gonorrhea & Chlamydia Ongoing peer support Referrals for community resources

Maternity clothes Baby clothes &Layette items

Parenting education Nursery Furnishings

Post Abortion Recovery

Relationship guidance Abstinence Education

All services FREE and CONFIDENTIAL

Get fit. Get paid.

For part-time Package Handlers at FedEx® Ground, it's like a paid workout. The work's demanding, but the rewards are big. Come join our team, get a weekly paycheck, tuition assistance and break a sweat with the nation's package delivery leader.

All shifts available. Up to $9.50 per hour to start, scheduled raises.

• 18 years or older · Ability to load, unload, sort packages

> Apply in person: Monday-Friday • 9am-4pm 2530 South Tri-Center Blvd. • Durham, NC 27713 (From I-40, take exit 278, then left onto Hwy. 55. Right onto Carpenter-Fletcher Rd. Left onto S. Alston Rd., then right onto S. Tri-Center Blvd.)

fedex.com/us/careers

Women and minorities are encouraged to join the team

www.Campus Echo.com