

This 'n' That

Pathology

Dr. Wiley Forbus, Dr. Stanfield Rogers and Dr. George Margolis attended a meeting of the American Association of Pathologists and Bacteriologists, held April 7-9 in Houston. Dr. Forbus also gave a lecture for students of the University of Texas Medical School at Galveston on April 6.—Jean Blackstone.

Private Medical Laboratory

Mrs. Mary B. Crowgey joined the lab as a technician on March 17. Mrs. Crowgey's husband is a resident in the Psychiatry Department at UNC.—P. W. Smith.

Psychology

Dr. F. G. Hall is fine after an attack suffered at the hands of an unknown assailant. He attended meetings of the Aeromedical Association, held last month in Washington.

Catherine Styron, a technician for Dr. Goodall, will become the bride of John Stone, on June 18 at the Watts Street Baptist Church. Catherine's fiance will complete his work in civil engineering in June.

Dr. Goodall, his wife and two children, are settled in their home at 152 Pinecrest Road.

Dr. and Mrs. Wayland Hull are the parents of a new son, Brian, born March 13. The Hulls have two other children, Jeffrey, nine, and Nancy, two and a half.—Sue Gaines.

Anatomy

Dr. and Mrs. Markee, Dr. John Everett, Dr. R. F. Becker, Dr. D. C. Hetherington, Dr. Talmage Peele, Leon Walker, Don Christian and Dr. William Knisely attended the American Association of Anatomists meeting in Philadelphia April 4-8. The Duke doctors presented papers during the four-day sessions.

Department of Surgery

New Faces:

Nancy (Mrs. Luther) Sappenfield, formerly of Charlotte Memorial Hospital, is now secretary to Dr. Keith Grimson of General Surgery; her husband is a second-year Medical Student.

Susan Upchurch, formerly of Surgical Pathology, is now to be seen greeting and assisting patients at the Surgical PDC desk.

Travel Notes:

Helen Blackley, Secretary in Neurosurgery, has just returned from a visit to her sister in Petersburg, Va.

Bertha Rankin, Secretary to Dr. Lenox Baker of Orthopaedics, is enjoying a trip to St. Petersburg and Pensacola, Fla., with her husband, Dick, who is an assistant resident on EENT.—Polly Southern.

X-Ray Department

The North Carolina Society of X-Ray Technicians held its annual convention in Winston-Salem March 11 and 12. The following student technicians from Duke attended: Misses Shirley Bailey, Lois Giffen, Ruth Sigmon, and Betty Crumpler. Miss Libby Ross, Miss Peggy Spainhower and John B. Cahoon, staff technicians at Duke, also attended.

Friday afternoon was devoted to a scientific program by students representing the six A.M.A. approved training schools in X-ray Technology of North Carolina. Miss Bailey of Duke won first prize. Joe Waller, a transfer student from Duke to Bowman-Gray, won second prize.

A banquet and dance were held Saturday night.

Bill Barbour, former student of Duke, now at Camp Butner Hospital was elected delegate to the National Convention in Boston to be held May 29.—Mrs. Barbara Cannada.

Ob-Gyn Department

Dr. Walter L. Thomas is recovering from an operation, and is getting along very nicely. We are looking forward to seeing him back at work soon.

"Rusty" Hedderly, Dr. Violet Turner's secretary, is also recovering from a knee operation. It is good to have her back.

We lost Dr. W. Rupert Kerr in March, who has gone to Houston, Texas, to enter private practice with his father. Both Dr. and Mrs. Kerr will be missed by all.

The newest bridegroom is Dr. Walter Cherny. The lucky bride is the former Rowena Ann Hooker of Florida. Our congratulations to both the bride and groom.—Mrs. Josephine Thompson.

Multilith Department

Robert Hobbs and Dwight Teague have just completed two years of training in the field of offset printing. Dwight has taken a job in the multilith department of Burlington Mills, Burlington.

We welcome Guy Harmon, who is replacing Dwight.

Mrs. Nancy Auman is a comparative newcomer to the department having started work in October as secretary. Her husband, George, is a divinity student. They have one daughter eighteen months old.

Miss Lucille Waite is no newcomer to the memo department, but has and still does keep that mimeograph machine humming from the many stencils she has to run daily.—N. F. Carden, Jr.

Bacteriology Department

The Conants are now pioneering in their cabin, which has been remodeled by them and their many friends. A new home is now being planned, and work on it will begin this summer.

A new employee in the department is Miss Jane Parker of Goldsboro and Durham, who is to replace Mrs. Pat Thames in June. Jane is a former school teacher and did summer replacement work at Duke last year.—Jean Hawkins and Pat Thames.

Biochemistry

William F. Bridgers was married to the former Anne Jenkins of Tuscaloosa, Ala. on Feb. 10. The bridegroom is working on his Ph.D. in Biochemistry and the bride is secretary to I. T. Reamer, Duke Hospital Pharmacy.

Social Service Department

Ruth Fike attended a Workshop at Tulane University School of Social Work in New Orleans in March. The Workshop was on the Medical Social Worker's Short-term Contacts with Patients. Attending the Workshop were 35 medical social workers in public health programs and hospital social service departments of the southern states.

Laundry

J. E. Sessom, who has been ill for the last two months, has improved so much that he is able to be with us for about two hours each day. He came back on March 14 and we are all
