

This 'n' That

Physiology

Alice Long journeyed to Jacksonville, Fla. for the Christmas holidays.

Fred Zechman and his family spent Christmas in Dayton, Ohio.

Dr. Angus Buchanan, research associate in Physiology, is over from St. Mary's Hospital Medical College, London, to assist in teaching the physiology course during the coming quarter.

—Sue Gaines

Personnel

Mr. Bindewald's newest addition, Jane Sheridan (Sherry), came into the world on Oct. 26. The Bindewalds also have two sons, Richard, six, and Dave, four.

Marie Herndon is taking the very last few days of her vacation for a sightseeing jaunt to Washington, D. C.

—Peyton Clements

Surgery

Dr. Ralph McCauley of the Urology House staff left us the first of the year. He is now in the Air Force, stationed at Dayton, Ohio.

Pediatrics

Dr. Charles B. Neal and Patty Hough were married on Dec. 31.

Miss Mildred Sherwood has rejoined the staff as pediatric supervisor—so nice to have her back.

Social Service

Mrs. Lennie-Marie Muse joined the staff of the department on Jan. 3. Mrs. Muse received her master's degree in psychiatric social work from the University of Chicago School of Social Service Administration. Prior to coming to Duke, she worked for almost two years as a psychiatric social worker in the Central New Jersey Mental Hygiene Clinic. Mrs. Muse is assigned to work in Kirby Clinic.

Isabel Pelton recently attended a three day conference at the Atlanta University School of Social Work. This meeting was in the form of a work shop for supervisors of students from this school. Miss Pelton is supervising Mrs. Vera Coleman who has been doing her field work in this department since September.

Medicine

Mrs. Anna Eby, secretary to Dr. Hickman and Dr. Warren, is leaving us in February. She has been replaced by Miss Virginia Mulvey, recently from Birmingham, Alabama.

Miss Nan Alyea, secretary to Dr. Nicholson, is also leaving in February. Jane Spencer will be Dr. Nicholson's new secretary. The Department of Medicine will miss both of these girls, and we really regret their leaving.

Dr. and Mrs. Spencer Brewer a new baby boy, born in late December.

Dr. Carl Jaeger, former assistant resident here, who was badly hurt in an automobile accident in Connecticut before Christmas, is recovering.

Dr. Bob Willett, practicing in Raleigh and Instructor in Medicine at Duke, was married in January to Dr. Hilda Pope, who is in Bacteriology at Duke.

Dr. Porter Crawford, former resident in Dermatology, has moved his practice from Burlington to Spartanburg. Porter's wife, the former Hilda McNeill, was laboratory nurse for the Department of Medicine a few years ago. Their many friends wish them well.

Miss Dorothy Longstreth, medical student, and Dr. Alexander Woods have announced their engagement. Dr. Woods is chief medical resident at the VA Hospital.

PDC Laboratory

Miss Ann Green, secretary of the Private Medical Laboratory, is engaged to marry Mr. Fredrick Ronald Yergan on February 25 at Braggtown Baptist Church.

PDC Surgical Division

Miss Kathy LeStrougeon is now Secretary to Dr. Sealy. Miss LeStrougeon is a graduate of Duke '55 and lives in Westover Park Apts.

Miss Sarah Kirkpatrick spent a week's vacation at her home in Greenville.

Mrs. Carrie Weise and husband "Ed" spent Christmas with her parents in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mrs. Shirley Mitchell's parents of Los Angeles, spent the week of Dec. 17 in Durham. Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smallwood made their trip by plane and Shirley and Jack, who is a medical student, met them in Washington, and motored to Durham. Their return trip to California was by plane.

Miss Nelle O'Briant spent Christmas with her sister and family in Falls Church, Va.

Mrs. Frances Lawrence and her sister motored to Florida for the Christmas holidays.

Miss Kitty Brunson, received a diamond from Pete Bennett. Pete is a senior at Duke and delivers the out-of-town papers to the hospital.

Mrs. Floride Bock, spent Christmas in South Carolina with her mother. Her mother returned with her to stay for awhile.

Mrs. Lib Pendergraft has just returned to work after undergoing surgery.

Mrs. Agnes Goswick had both of her sons home for Christmas. Claude, Jr. graduated from Duke Medical School and is now in Cincinnati. Alex is in the service.

Miss Betsy Farmer spent the Christmas holidays at her home in Wilson.

Mrs. Mary Crowgey spent Christmas in Charlottesville, Va.

Miss Lucy Harms spent her vacation in New Jersey and the Christmas holidays in Florida.

Miss Joyce Lockhart spent Christmas holidays in Roanoke, Va.

—Nelle O'Briant

Laundry

The Christmas party held at the laundry brought much joy to every one, a beautiful prayer was given by Mary Campbell, gifts were exchanged, and a round of refreshments served.

Those enjoying recent vacations are Mae Daniel, Sue Williams, and Lillie Edens.

We welcome Ernest Davis, a new employee in our department.

Our sympathy to those having had recent visits from Old Man Flu.

—Thelma Stafford

Business Office

Miss Margaret Hamlett was married to Clifford B. Knight Jr. in the Longhurst Methodist Church on Jan. 1. They are now living at 2401 W. Club Blvd. here in Durham. Clifford is a graduate of the University of Connecticut and is now in graduate school at Duke University. Margaret is a graduate of Roxboro High School and has been employed in the Business Office for the past three years.

—Drucilla Horton