

Camera on the Prowl

Inter-Com's roving camera has been looking in on the Hospital at work again.

That's Bess Cebe behind the desk. We nominate her for the Secretarial Hall of Fame—She keeps the Medical Department ticking along.

An informal symposium on viral tumors back in December was the occasion for the festive group around the dinner table above.

"Welcome home, Travelers" should caption the pictures to the left: Miss Mildred Sherwood and Miss Marian Batchelder safely back from Japan.

Hope the food holds out. Just look at the line headed into the dining room!
