

since Helen's oldest daughter, Theresa, is entertaining measles!

Mona's daughter, Jane Morgan Mills, and husband, Don (now a Lt. in the Air Force stationed in Greenville, S. C.), and their small daughter Scottie, spent the weekend of May 27 with Mona.

The Dean's Office at this writing, is buzzing with preparations for commencement and we are happy that all but four of eighty M.D. graduates plan to return for commencement exercises.—Helen M. Thomas

Ob-Gyn

John B. McCall and J. B. Williams have that "Florida tan"; both enjoyed a pleasant vacation in Florida.

Yancey Culton, Carroll Shoemaker and Paul Green, Jr., have returned from a vacation.

The Ob-Gyn residents entertained at a "get-together" in the residents quarters, May 17, for the internes who were leaving in May and June. The department enjoyed their stay which was only a short time and bids them a fond farewell. Those leaving are: Carroll Shoemaker, Blair Bryan, Robert Windon and Frank Lang. We wish them well wherever they go.

Dr. Robert Windon is to be congratulated on a new son born April 26. Cigars were passed out.

Bad news from the ob-gyn clinic Dr. VonRoebel has been missed in the clinic due to illness; Mrs. Lillie Robbins also has been missed—she has a broken arm.

Hospital Laundry

Congratulations to Bruce and Ruth Roberts! A baby girl, Valeria Jean, came Feb. 8.

Margaret Bullock enjoyed a recent vacation in New York City and Long Island.

Others having vacations are Marie Samuels, Rose Johnson, Janie Edwards, Lillian Phillips, Cora Adams, Mary Ann Ward, and Kathryn Williams.

Welcome to Eva Cooper and Eugene Rogers who are new in our department.

A speedy recovery to Gertrude Smith who is confined to her home with an illness.

Our sincere sympathy to Willie

Mathews in the recent death of his father.—Thelma Stafford

Business Office

Nancy King visited Myrtle Beach, South Carolina the week of May 28 to June 4.

Drucilla Horton had a vacation at home May 14 to May 25.

Nancy and Harold Balltzglier spent their vacation at Myrtle Beach June 4 to June 18.

Helen Wagoner is a new cashier in the Business Office.

Bernie Welch, administrative interne, has spent a three months' period in the Business Office. The Office is losing him on July 8 to a girl in Winston-Salem.

John McBryde, Gertrude Webb and Nancy Balltzglier spent a pleasant day in Winston-Salem April 26. They ate lunch with Reid Holmes, a former administrative interne and chatted with Reubin Graham and Clyde Hardy, also former boys. Enroute home, they stopped in Burlington to see Mr. Pyne and his family. He seems to be very well situated and happy and the Durham trio was much impressed by his hospital.

Admitting Office

Mrs. Mary Trent left for her home in Oklahoma on May 15. She visited her daughter, Elizabeth Hendricks, and the family of Dr. and Mrs. James H. Semans, the immediate occasion being the dedication of the beautiful Trent Room in the Medical Library. Mrs. Trent's many friends in Durham and Duke University joined her in honoring the memory of the late Dr. Josiah C. Trent.—Nancy Balltzglier

Anatomy

We are happy to have Mrs. Wheeler, secretary to the Department of Anatomy, back with us, after having a severe case of poison ivy.

Members of the Anatomy Department celebrated Dr. Markee's birthday on May 22nd by having a barbeque and brunswick stew supper out at one of the Duke gates.

Dr. D. C. Hetherington recently attended an executive meeting of the Tissue Culture Association at the R. B. Jackson Memorial Laboratory at Bar Harbor, Maine.

Drs. Markee and Peele and Sam Agnello will attend the AMA Meeting in Chicago in June.

Dr. and Mrs. Markee attended the
