

American Urological Society Meeting in Boston in May.

Andrew L. Barrett has accepted a position with the Medical College of Georgia as chief of the Photographic Department.

Surgical PDC

Phyllis McCauley received a diamond on April 28 and will become the bride of Brice Jack Moreau of Manchester, N. H. in early summer.

Phyllis graduated in 1954 from Durham High School and is now enrolled at Duke, as well as being Dr. Kenneth Pickrell's secretary. The bridegroom-to-be attended Duke last year and is now serving a tour of duty with the Marines, stationed at Camp Lejeune.

Lucy Harms, Dr. Gardner's secretary, is trying her hand at driving her new Ford.

Joe Whitley had a recent visit with her sister in Wilmington, Delaware.

The girls of Surgical PDC gave a surprise shower for Mrs. Ruth Terry on May 11.—Nelle O'Briant

Barbara McCauley of the Surgical Stenographic Office recently spent a week's vacation in Asheville with her husband, Gene, who is now enroute to the European Theatre with his Army Medical Corps outfit.

Dr. Charner Bramlett, Assistant Resident in Surgery, has just been called to active duty with the Navy.

—Polly Southern

DUKE HOSPITAL
DURHAM, NORTH CAROLINA