

AUXILIARY LEADERS—Mrs. Alan K. Manchester was elected new president of the Duke Hospital Women's Auxiliary at the 1957 Annual Meeting. Pictured with Mrs. Manchester, seated at far left, are other new officers. Standing, left to right are Mrs. James Warren, second vice-president; Mrs. E. L. Persons, first vice-president, and Mrs. T. H. Daniel, corresponding secretary. Mrs. Tom Aycock, seated center, is third vice-president, and Mrs. Glenn R. Negley at right is recording secretary. Committee chairmen for the new year are: Finance, Mrs. S. W. Myatt; nominating, Mrs. Watt Eagle; membership, Mrs. Kenneth Penrod; policy, Mrs. William Nicholson; publications, Mrs. Earl Porter; public relations, Mrs. W. D. Murray and Mrs. Richard Leach, co-chairmen; social activities, Mrs. Julian Ruffin; projects, Mrs. June Hackney; services, Mrs. Shelton Smith; ways and means, Mrs. Bayard Carter; historian, Mrs. Fred Christian; coffee service, Mrs. Watt Eagle and Miss Mary Poston, co-chairmen; shop cart, Mrs. T. M. Aycock and Mrs. L. A. Girard, co-chairmen; guide, Mrs. C. R. Stephen; registration, Miss Sallie Beavers; library, Mrs. Lamar Callaway and Mrs. E. C. Bryson, co-chairmen; magazines, Mrs. Eugene A. Stead; pediatrics, Mrs. R. L. Tuthill; occupational therapy, Mrs. James T. Cleland; and junior volunteers, Mrs. Donald Deichmann.

Dr. Smith Wins Awards

(Continued from page 1)

the North Carolina Tuberculosis Association and the Durham County Tuberculosis and Health Association.

Born in Anderson County, S. C., Dr. Smith received the A.B. degree from Furman University and the M.D. from the Johns Hopkins School of Medicine. He joined the Duke medical faculty in 1930.

Dr. Smith is chairman of the Department of Microbiology and the Department of Preventive Medicine and Public Health in the Duke School of Medicine.—By Norman Nelson.

From The Auxiliary

On April 23 at the Auxiliary's Annual Meeting new officers were elected. Look for their picture in this issue of INTER-COM. We want you to know our VIPs! Mrs. Julian Ruffin, retiring president, was presented by Ross Porter with a past president's pin for two years of devoted service.

The Ways and Means Committee, with Mrs. Bayard Carter as chairman, held a new kind of rummage sale on May 20. Dubbed a "Clothesline Sale" the clothes really were on the clothesline in Mrs. Carter's backyard. Spring flowers and home-made cakes, cookies and punch were on sale, also. A pretty day and the usual excellent cooperation of members of the Ways and Means Committee and of the general Auxiliary membership brought off a successful sale. The next morning profits were reported as "a hundred dollars with more to come."

Mr. L. E. Swanson asked for ten to fifteen auxiliary members June 1 and 2 (Commencement weekend) to act as hostesses for a preview of the new wing arranged for visiting alumni. An exciting assignment!

How many of you are familiar with the work of the Registration Service? This service is stationed at the Out-Patient Department, where volunteers obtain necessary data regarding new patients coming to the Clinic. Hospital personnel in charge instruct the volunteer in her duties. A few months ago a new branch was added: Registration Service for Kirby Clinic. Now staffed by Mrs. Philip Kistler and Mrs. William P. Deiss, this phase of the service will be expanded when it moves to the new wing. The service in the Out-Patient Clinic operates on a regular schedule of five days each week. Under the chairmanship of Miss Sallie Beavers, volunteers working on Registration are: Mrs.