

time was had by all! The rain did interrupt a scheduled baseball game between Bill Lynn's team and Lou Hass' fabulous nine. The game has been postponed till some future date.

More excitement developed over here in the Bell Building when a little blue parakeet dubbed "Peanuts" was found on the tracks outside the building. He now resides in our coffee lounge in an up turned test tube holder.

And the newest addition to the group besides "Peanuts" is Mrs. Mary Joan Ervine who is replacing Beverly Konicek. Mrs. Konicek is leaving Durham as her husband begins a three-year term in the United States Marine Corps.

Biochemistry is also losing one of their Post-Doctoral U.S.P.H.S. Fellows, Dr. Dan Bernstein. Dan, Marge, and little Jeff will be moving to Boston, Mass., as Dan begins his duties as senior assistant resident at the Peter Bent Brigham Hospital.

—By Beverly Konicek.

Physiology

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Zechman are pleased to announce a new addition to their family, Ricky, born on the 26th of April.

Also congratulations to Karl and Barbara Agre, who are the proud parents of a baby girl, Susan, born May 2nd.

The Physiology Department is sorry to lose Alice Long. Alice is leaving June 1 to accept a job as research technician in cardiovascular laboratory at the University of Wisconsin in Madison. We wish Alice the best of luck: —By Sue Gaines.

Psychiatry

Dr. Walter D. Obrist has joined our staff as Assistant Professor of medical psychology.

The staff at Kirby Clinic recently had a party to celebrate "moving into the new wing." This was in Dr. Charles Llewellyn's home.

Dr. Charles Spielberger recently attended the Southeastern Psychological Association meeting in Nashville and the Midwestern Psychological meeting in Chicago.

Kathy Huggins, who was secretary to Dr. Cohen and Dr. Parsons, has moved to Danville, where her husband, Ted, will practice law.

Evelyn Chesson was married May 8, to Billy Gay-Lord, a student at State College in Raleigh.

On May 16, the Psychiatry residents entertained for Dr. Leslie Hohman, Dr. Talmadge Peele, and Dr. D. C. Hetherington, who were their instructors in a recently completed neuroanatomy course.

Mrs. Lennie Muse was a panelist at the North Carolina Hampton Institute Alumnae Conference and was also a participant in Social Work Career Conference at N. C. College.

—By Ann M. Hood.

Medicine

Dr. and Mrs. Ernst Peschel left on May 17 for Europe. They will visit Germany, Spain and France.

Dr. Callaway will spend most of the month of June on a tour to the Far East as consultant for the U. S. Air Force.

During the Atlantic City meetings early in May, Dr. Stead was feted by the ten people who have been his chief residents since he came to Duke in 1947. They are Sam Martin, "Crip" Holland, Jim Schieve, Grace Kerby, Bill Hollingsworth, Gerry Rodnan, Harry McPherson, Mort Bogdonoff, Sid Osterhout, and Don Merritt.

Judy Mitchell Thompson has moved from her job in Medical OPC to the job of secretary to Dr. Henry McIntosh. We are glad to have her.

Dr. John Hickam, who recently completed several years of service on the Scientific Advisory Board of the U. S. Air Force, was honored in May at Patrick Air Force Base in Florida. At a full board meeting of the Scientific Advisory Board, the Secretary of the Air Force, Donald A. Quarles, presented Dr. Hickman with the Civilian Exceptional Services Award.

—By Bess Cebel.

Private Medical Laboratory

The Private Medical Laboratory is now temporarily located in the Central Laboratory in the new wing of the hospital. It will remain here until the remodeling of the old laboratory is completed. —By Ann Yergan.

Surgery

Mrs. Ann Eure has resigned her position in the Surgical Stenographic Office to return with her husband to their home in Morehead City.

Mrs. Carolyn Weiss has resigned as secretary to Dr. Lenox Baker and will go to the Naval Hospital, Great Lakes, Ill. in July where her husband, Ed, will begin an internship.

The Surgery Department is proud of Dr. Phil Kistler and Dr. Ben Flowe who won first and second places in the Duke Hospital Golf Tournament.

Ann Wells, formerly a secretary in Dr. Anderson's office, had a baby boy on May 17.

Dr. James O'Neill will finish his residency in E. E. N. & T. on July 1. He is going to Maine to study for three months, and will then return to be an associate with Dr. Anderson.

Dr. and Mrs. Earl Galleher are the proud parents of a new boy: William Wheelwright Galleher.

—By Pat Waller.

Social Service

Miss Wien has really been busy in and out of the office lately! She spent April 1-2 helping give a workshop on Social Casework Techniques Office in Montgomery, Ala., and with Miss Aycock and Miss Pelton attended the N. C. Conference for Social Service in Asheville April 28-30. Miss Wien was elected Vice-President of the Conference. On May 3-4 Miss Wien attended the Executive Committee Meeting of the Medical Social Work Section of the National Association of Social Workers in New York. Miss Wien is one of two Delegates from the Medical Social Work Section to the National Delegate Assembly.

The staff had a delightful picnic on May 6 at Duke Forest. The food