

David Elder, a member of the Medical House Staff, on December 7.

Kathryn LeStourgeon, secretary to Dr. Sealy, and Dr. Whitman Smith became engaged on January 11. Whit plans to return to Duke in July for a Junior Assistant Residency in Surgery.

Betty Lou Moore, Record Library, was married to Jesse Franklin Vaughan on November 28.

Jane Barwick, Record Library, was married to Robert Hughes on January 4.

Dr. Victor Slater and Dr. Marlan Rhame, both residents in the Psychiatry Department, married recently.

NEW FACES AND OLD

Medical Illustration

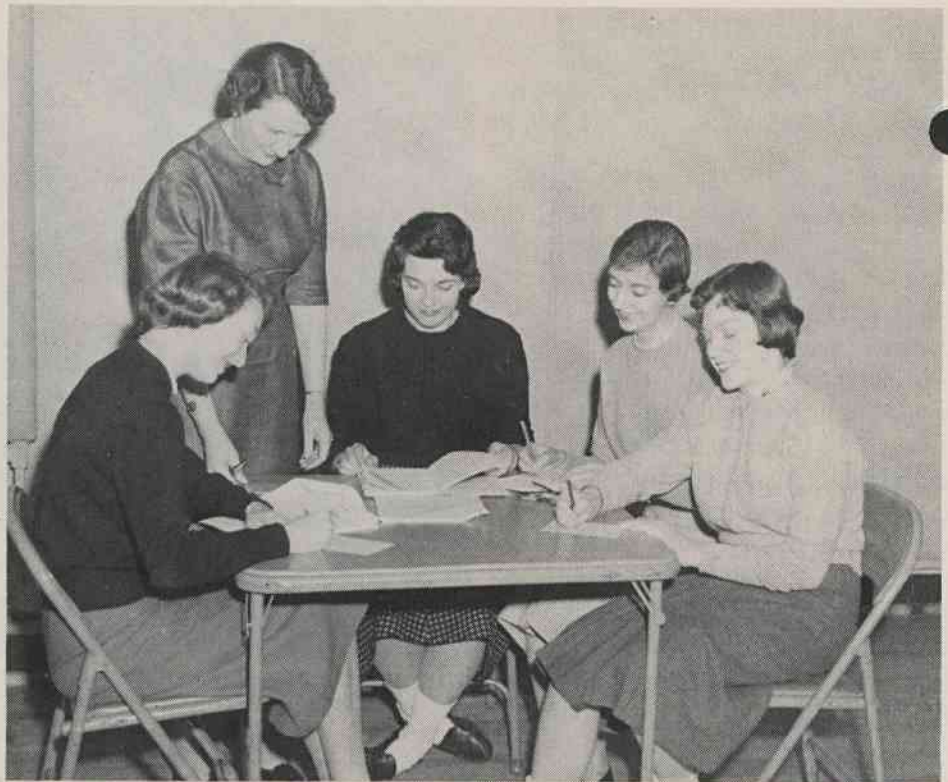

Mrs. Carol Riley has been appointed Assistant Medical Artist to replace Mr. Paul Fairchild, Medical Artist, who resigned to accept the position of Assistant Director, Medical Illustration, Ohio University School of Medicine.

Miss Jeanne Justice has been employed as Technical Artist to fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Mrs. Libby Hayes. Mrs. Hayes will devote her time to her home and family.

Mr. John Justice has accepted a position as Assistant Photographer, a vacancy caused by the promotion of Mr. Thurmon Ellis from Assistant Photographer to Assistant Medical Photographer.

Social Service

Miss Louisa Rogers has joined the Department as a Casework Supervisor for the Surgical, Pediatric and Obstetric Services. Miss Rogers worked on the Prevention of Prematurity Project sponsored by the U. S. Children's Bureau in the University of Colorado General Hospital, Denver. For the past five years Miss Rogers has been on the staff of the Medical School at Vanderbilt University, the institution from whose School of Social Work she received her Master's degree.

PROFESSIONAL NURSE TRAINEESHIPS AWARDED. The Division of Nursing Resources of the U. S. Public Health Service has awarded five pre-bachelor traineeships worth $2,400 each to Tanya Tillett, Kitty Hawk; Anne L. Whitley, Concord; Barbara Hudak, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; and Marguerite Thain, Skyland; shown above with Mrs. Edith Brocker of the Duke University School of Nursing as they registered for classes; and to Eileen Sullivan, Hempstead, Long Island, N. Y., who was not present when the picture was made. In addition, Mrs. Violet Walters, also absent from the picture, holds a $1,400 traineeship for one semester. Mrs. Walters is working toward her B.S. in Nursing Education. Recipients of the traineeships were selected by the Duke University School of Nursing. The grants are part of a nationwide program designed to prepare more nurses for teaching and administrative duties in nursing schools and for positions as supervisors and nursing service administrators in hospitals and public health agencies.

Miss Merle Foeckler continues as Casework Supervisor for the Medical and Psychiatric Services.

Miss Elizabeth King has joined the Department as Caseworker on the Neurosurgery, Plastic Surgery, Urology and Oral Surgery Services.

Miss Isabel Pelton has resigned to accept a position as Medical Social Consultant in the American Cancer Society in New York.

Record Library

We want to extend a special welcome to all our new employees. In our Microfilm Department, Ann Grady and Clara Dawson; in our filing department, Jean Black, Anthnette Hicks and Clara Carden. Also to Evelyn Greene who will serve as assistant to Norma Carpenter, filing department supervisor, and to Nan Rogers who is assistant to Evelyn Overcash at the discharge desk.

Private Medical Laboratory

Mrs. Arleen Hodosh, Mrs. Katherine Tindall and Miss Frances Atkins are new employees. Arleen hails from Los Angeles, California. She was recently married to Mr. Stewart Hodosh, a first-year medical student at Duke. Katy is the wife of Dr. George Tindall. Frances, who attended Salem College last year, has been working in the Private Medical Laboratory since September.

(Continued on page 7)