

Medicine

Mrs. Shirley Ferguson, secretary to Dr. McIntosh, leaves the department early in June to go back to school. Within about a year she will be qualified to teach elementary grades. We lose a splendid secretary, but we admire her ambition.

Physiotherapy

Mrs. Jean Wolf, one of our Dec. '57 graduates, has replaced her classmate, Penny Wood, who travels to Utah to be married to Mr. C. Michael Margetts.

Members of the staff awarded O.V.R. scholarships recently to participate in institutes were: Jean Gerrie for the course "Neurophysiological Bases for Rehabilitation" at the University of Pennsylvania, and John Riebel for New York Medical College's course on "Principles and Practices of Geriatric Rehabilitation."

Miss Kaiser and Lois Perkins visited the National Institutes of Health and attended a meeting of the Eastern Section, Congress of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, in Washington.

Medical Record Library

Mrs. Augusta Kirkland, retiring president of the State Medical Record

Librarians, was nominated a delegate to the national meeting Oct. 13-16 in Boston.

We welcome back two former employees: Nancy Graham and Angie Wiggins.

Mrs. Bufkin conducted a Seminar on Medical Records in Roanoke, Va., the last of May.

Nursing School

Word comes of the appointment of Dr. Helen Nahm, Professor of Nursing Education at Duke from 1946-50, as dean of the University of California School of Nursing, San Francisco.

ON THE GO

Nan Alyea, secretary to Dr. Ailyan, and Ann Forbes, Pediatric Nurse, sail for Europe July 23. They plan a three and a half months tour of the continent, including a stop at the World's Fair in Brussels.

Margaret Riddle, secretary to Dr. Kunkle, left May 26 to work at an Air Force hospital in Wiesbaden, Germany.

Dr. Arnold Weissler, Instructor in Medicine, has been accepted by the American Heart Association as a successful applicant for a travelling fellowship to Brussels, Belgium, this September. He will attend the Third International Conference on Cardiology. Dr. Weissler will be chief resident on Medicine for 1958-59.

Dr. and Mrs. Wiley Forbus spent the month of May in Europe, visiting France, Germany, Italy and the World's Fair in Belgium. During April Dr. Faubus was on a mission for the Surgeon General of the U. S. Army in France and Germany.

Chaplains on Call

A chaplain is now on call at the hospital 24 hours a day. Beginning July 1 Mr. P. W. Aitken will move from a half-time to a full-time basis as Chaplain to the hospital. In addition an advanced training program offers graduate ordained ministers clinical training, with three men now in the program. A second graduate program is designed for one student at a time and is run jointly by the Chaplain's Department and the Psychiatry Department in cooperation with the Army Chaplain's Service. This offers 18 month's training. Both programs are for mature, seasoned men. Mr. Aitken and these graduate students rotate on a call basis to provide continuous service.
