

YESTERDAY AND TODAY. Picture on the left, taken in the early days of Duke Hospital, shows staff checking food in the main kitchen before it goes to the ward. Picture on the right shows the tray assembly belt in the new wing. On this belt a tray can be assembled in one and one half minutes.

ing January 1 and returned to his home in Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Dr. Joseph James who interned in Pediatrics from 1954-1956 has returned to Duke after completing a tour of duty in the Armed Forces. He will specialize in Radiology.

Record Room

Our new department secretary is Kay Loepp who came to us from Washington State.

Physical Therapy

Jean Wolf and Martha Brewer have left the staff. The Wolfs are moving to Poplar Bluff, Missouri, and Martha to Bridgeport, Connecticut, where Jim, a December graduate of Duke University Medical School, started his internship January 2.

Eleanor Flanagan has returned to the staff after two years of graduate work in Physiology at Duke.

Psychiatry

A going-away party was given recently for four secretaries who will leave in the near future: Ann Dula, Linda Talbert, Linda O'Brien, and Joan Klug.

Mrs. Felice Katchin has joined the secretarial staff. Mrs. Gerda Fredeheim is now with us full-time as a research assistant. Mrs. Margie King is working in the Gerontological Laboratory as a research assistant.

Duke Hospital
Durham, N. C.

Mr. H. J. Herring
214 Allen Building
Campus

