

One of our 1958 graduates, Carol Ann Jones, from Washington, D. C., has joined our staff. She received her A.B. degree from UNC and substituted for six weeks at Memorial Hospital before joining us.

Nursing School

New secretary to the Dean is Mrs. Marion Moore.

Beth Paschall joined the faculty in November, 1958; Carol Brady and Jo Ann Brown in January; and Mary Sue Hayes on March 2.

Record Library

Welcome to Rose Hobgood who has joined our filing staff.

We hope to see both "New Faces and Old" at the Conference on Medical Records to be held April 27-30. The faculty for the Conference includes Duke Medical Center staff members, faculty from Duke University, Memorial Hospital, Watts Hospital, Buffalo General Hospital and the USPHS.

Psychiatry

Dr. Frederick R. Hine has been appointed head of the Inpatient Services on Meyer and Cabell. Dr. and Mrs. Hine and son, Fritz, live at 2317 Prince Street.

Mrs. Elma Medley, Mrs. Barbara Hall, Mrs. Felice Katkin and Jane Stainback are new secretaries. Our new receptionist is June Perry.

Surgical P.D.C.

Mrs. Don Keller (Susie) resigned as Compensation and Liability Officer March 6.

Surgery

Emily Raulston is a new secretary in the Eye Department. She is from Knoxville, Tennessee.

Mrs. Edna Burrage is now working as secretary in Dr. Piekrell's office.

Mrs. Mary Woods is replacing Lucy Harms, secretary to Dr. Gardner, and Lucy will take the place of Mrs. Patricia Kirkland, secretary to Dr. Hart.

OUTSTANDING EMPLOYEE

(Continued from page 2)

Department. After two years on jobs elsewhere, she returned to the hospital in 1948 and has been employed in the Physical Therapy Department since that time. She and her husband have no children.

During 1959 a total of five persons will be selected as "Outstanding Employee of the Month." At the end of the year the qualifications of these five employees will be reviewed and the "Outstanding Employee of the Year" will be selected and announced.

Nominate your candidate and watch this space for the next winner.

NAMED MARKLE SCHOLAR

(Continued from page 6)

Associate Professor of Pediatrics; Dr. Sanford Cohen, Assistant Professor of Psychiatry; Dr. Ashton Morrison, on the staff of the University of Pennsylvania Medical School; Dr. Samuel Martin, chairman of the Department of Medicine, University of Florida; Dr. George Schwert, recently appointed chairman of the Department of Biochemistry, Medical Center of the University of Kentucky.

Duke Hospital
Durham, N. C.