

Physiology and Pharmacology

Welcome to Dr. Jack Kostyo, Assistant Professor; Dr. John Salzano, Assistant Professor; and Mrs. Betty Farmer, Secretary to the Department.

The good wishes of the Department go with Walter Davis who retired July 31 after eleven years' service as janitor in the department.

Private Medical Laboratory

Mrs. Rosa Lee Goldston has been employed in the laboratory since July 21. She is the wife of William R. Goldston, a first-year medical student at Duke.

Mrs. Mary Frances Meyers, a new medical technology student, will be in training in the lab for the next three months. Her husband is a Divinity student at Wake Forest Seminary.

Microbiology

Mrs. Hazel Hollander has replaced Mrs. Edith Renegar as secretary to Dr. N. F. Conant. Macon Moore Weaver has been employed as a technician with Dr. Conant.

Mrs. Marion Smith, wife of Preston Smith in Medical PDC, has taken Mrs. Anna Price's place in the vaccine lab.

Psychiatry

Welcome to our new secretaries: Mrs. Carol Gadbois, Marilyn Dent, Mrs. Patricia Parkhurst, Mrs. Linda O'Brien, Katharine Jones, Mrs. Penny Crowell and Mrs. Ida Ainsworth. Mary Fuller Strange is in the department as one of the on-the-job secretarial trainees from Lees McRae

College. Duke Hospital is sponsoring a rotation program for the training of medical secretarial students.

Mrs. Doris Mooney has replaced Mrs. Joan Kuhns as clerk in the Outpatient Clinic.

Coming from the Air Force, Dr. Virgil M. Cox, Jr., joined the resident staff September 1.

Anesthesiology

Dr. Michel Bourgeois-Gavardin, formerly Associate Professor of Anesthesia, has taken over as Chief of Anesthesia at Watts Hospital. He will be replaced by Dr. William C. North, who will arrive from Northwestern University, Chicago, November 1.

Dr. Paul R. Knox arrived August 1 from the U. S. Naval Hospital, Bethesda. He will be associated with the department for two years.

Our maid, Clara Mae Allen, who graduated from North Carolina College this summer, has been replaced by Ellen Bowling, also a student at North Carolina College.

Pat Ramsey, who recently completed her course in the School of Anesthesia for Nurse Anesthetists, is a Staff Nurse Anesthetist in the department.

Richard Conover, recent graduate of the course in Inhalation Therapy at Saint Elizabeth's Hospital, Elizabeth, N. J., has been appointed Supervisor of the Duke Inhalation Therapy Department.

Welcome to new residents begin-

Surgery

Welcome to our new secretaries: Doris Byrd replacing Emily Raulston in Eye Clinic; Sylvia Sechler replacing Marianne Widenhouse in Dr. Baker's office. Marianne has moved to Wilmington. Robin Kramer has joined Judy Kenan in Dr. Arnold's office. Carolyn Wise replaces Patty Lou Smith in Neurosurgery.

Ellie Spada, technician in Dr. An-lyan's lab, is proud of husband Bob—one of Coach Murray's outstanding players.

Physical Therapy

Nine new students, three new staff members and all our returning vacationers are ready to start a new year in the department. James Chan and Betty Ussher have joined us as research associates; Mr. Chan to work with the department of Pediatrics and Miss Ussher with the department of Surgery. Mrs. Shirley McCue also joined the department during the summer.

John Riebel, who has been Coordinator of Education for the past two years, has resigned to enter graduate school at Duke in the new Ph.D. interdisciplinary program in Anatomy, Physiology and Psychology.
