

Hospital Business Office

Mr. James W. Anderson joins the administrative staff as business officer succeeding Mr. Leonard C. Small who resigned to enter private business. Mr. Anderson is in charge of hospital business affairs including admissions, insurance, accounts receivable and collections.

He received the Bachelor of Business Administration degree from the University of Miami in 1951 and became a CPA in 1955. Before coming to Duke Mr. Anderson spent five years in the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and prior to that he was associated with the Gary Tobacco Company, a subsidiary of Liggett & Myers, in Samsun, Turkey. He is married to the former Betty Newton of Durham.

Mr. John A. Salmon, Jr., chief admitting officer, has resigned to accept the position of collection manager of the Mission Memorial Hospital in Asheville. A member of the Duke staff since 1958, Mr. Salmon assumed his new duties last month.

Misses Cecile Louise Crosby and Judith Miller, high school seniors, are part time employees of the Hospital business office under the diversified occupations program of the Durham High School. Cecile is receiving office training in the insurance division and Judy in the bookkeeping department.

Mrs. Beverly Wilkins and Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Jones have joined the staff of the hospital insurance department.

Mrs. Hilda Parker, formerly of the bookkeeping department, has become secretary to Mr. J. W. Anderson and is also carrying out duties related to government and agency programs. Mrs. Betty Martin recently joined the business office for similar duties. Mrs. Nellie Wilkins fills Mrs. Parker's vacancy in the bookkeeping department.

The business office also welcomes Mrs. Elsie Hall, Mrs. Beth Gilbert, and Mrs. Selma Stone as cashiers and Miss Merrill Jean Williamson to the addressograph department.

Physical Therapy

Physical therapy welcomes two new staff members. Miss Jean Downs, from Canton, N. C., joined the staff in September following her graduation from the UNC. Miss Ella Cleary, a native of Cambridge, Mass. and a graduate of New York University, is temporarily employed in physical therapy.

Medical Record Library

Medical Records lost Miss Cathy Honeycutt but welcomes two new employees, Miss Jean Roberts and Mrs. Nancy Graham.

Anesthesia

The new residents in anesthesia are: Drs. James S. Barr, Edwin Coffman, Stuart P. Culpepper, Jack M. Mobley, William D. Rippey and McKim Williams.

Miss Josephine Nichols has joined the department as nurse anesthetist replacing Miss Pat Ramey.

On the Go

A Medical Center Bowling League has been formed, meeting at Sportland (on the Chapel Hill Blvd) every Tuesday night at 6:30. The League is just getting started, but already the interest seems to be great. About 30 people came out to the first night of bowling last month, so all Medical Center bowling enthusiasts—new and old—are cordially invited to come out any Tuesday evening.

A Stork Shower was held in the Surgical PDC for Mrs. Becky Umstead who left the department on September 27, and a farewell party was held for Mrs. Lucille Riley, technician, who has moved to Orlando, Florida.

The SPDC's Business Manager R. N. Crenshaw attended the 35th Clinical Managers Meeting in Dallas last month and Miss Nelle O'Briant was a delegate from the Durham chapter of the National Secretaries Assoc. who attended this association's international conference in White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia.
