

This 'n' That

New Arrivals

Ginny Meadows Hackett, Dr. Stephen's secretary, a daughter, May 9, Amanda Lee.

In Psychiatry, Dr. and Mrs. C. Rex Williams, a daughter; Dr. and Mrs. Ted Goldbloom, a daughter; and Dr. and Mrs. John B. Reckless, a son.

Wedding Bells

Dr. Clyde Cox, Surgery, will be married in July to Carolyn Reasor. He then goes into the Air Force.

Gladys Smith, Dr. Clippinger's secretary, is now Mrs. Shults.

On May 20, there were two weddings of personnel in the Psychiatry Department. Faye Perry and Stuart Wilson were married, and Anne Jordan was wed to Walter Craven, Duke Hospital administrative intern.

New Faces and Old

Microbiology

Cotty Satterfield is replacing Mrs. Barrie Wallace as Dr. David Smith's secretary. The Wallaces are going to Bethesda, Maryland.

Business Office

Mr. Helen Iskyan joined the staff of the Business Office insurance division in March.

Mrs. Doris O'Dell was transferred to the insurance division to replace Mrs. Mary Jones who is moving to Woodland, North Carolina.

Mrs. Jeanette Dickey replaced Mrs. O'Dell as addressograph operator.

Surgical P. D. C.

Mr. H. D. Maynard, Jr., Assistant

Business Manager of S.P.D.C. is recuperating at home from surgery April 23.

Mrs. Frances Hawley, Registrar, left us June 1. She will remain at home to be with her son.

Mrs. Jack H. Wells (Virginia) joins S.P.D.C. She is from Cedar Grove, N. C., is married and has two girls and two boys.

Psychiatry

Several secretaries have resigned. Mrs. Karen McQueen is now in Atlanta, Georgia. Mrs. Patty Parkhurst is in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. The husbands of both are recent Duke Law School graduates.

Mrs. Sheila Tanner, who worked as Dr. Bressler's secretary for six years, is now a full-time housewife. Miss Ann Epley replaced Sheila.

Mrs. Susan Ruben has resigned as Dr. Lowenbach's secretary. She is in Winston-Salem this summer where her husband, Fred, a Duke medical student, has a summer job.

Mrs. Alene Threlkeld, our former OPC clerk, is living in Cary, N. C.

Surgery

Dr. W. C. Sealy heads for Europe this month to speak at an international symposium in Paris.

Leaving us for new ventures at the completion of residency June 30 will be:

Dr. George H. Welch, private surgical practice in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Dr. Otto Stewart, private orthopaedic practice in Sheboygan, Wisconsin.

Dr. John Turner, faculty of the Private Diagnostic Clinic at Emory

University in Atlanta, in Otolaryngology.

Dr. Harold Lefkoff, private practice of Otolaryngology in Atlanta.

Dr. George Tyndall, Neurosurgery at the VA Hospital here.

Physical Therapy

Eleanor Flanagan was responsible for the fine program on Extrapyramidal Nervous System Diseases at the spring meeting of the North Carolina Physical Therapy Association in Raleigh, April 29. At the business session, she was elected to a two-year term as vice-president of the North Carolina chapter. Ellie also went to Asheville to be with the department exhibit at the North Carolina Medical Association meeting May 6-10.

Helen Kaiser and Grace Horton attended the American Physical Therapy Association OVR sponsored workshop on "Education for Physical Therapists" held at the University of Oklahoma, April 17. Miss Kaiser also attended a meeting of physical therapy school directors in Washington May 5-6, and a conference in Atlanta May 11-12 on the Education of the Cerebral Palsied child.

Emy Villaneuva, one of our 1959 graduates, returned to our staff in April, after working a year and a half in Puerto Rico. Bill Schmidt, who has been with us this spring on a part-time basis, is now working full-time. On May 1st Mrs. Maris Kyne began working on a part-time basis in our program with the pediatrics department.

Duke Hospital
Durham, N. C.