

This 'n' That

Dr. Ralph M. Howse will also be completing his residency in Urology in June and will be going into private practice in Rome, Georgia. Ralph's wife, Rose has been Dr. Brown's secretary, and Chloe Mason will be taking her place.

Dr. W. Banks Anderson, Jr., has been appointed Assistant Professor of Ophthalmology effective July 1.

Sandy Weaver is now working in the Surgical Resident's Office. Her husband is an insurance salesman, and both are graduates of Campbell College.

Personnel

Mrs. Frances Atkins is Mr. Kantner's new secretary, replacing Marie Jourdan.

Hospital Business Office

The Business Office welcomes two new employees, Sharon Ann Perkins and Mrs. Betty Jean Weaver, and the return of a former employee, Mrs. Bonnie Kyles.

Surgical P D C

Mrs. Ruby Lee Pope has joined the staff. She lives at 1212 Eva Street with her husband, James, and two sons, Jean and Tommy.

Duke Hospital
Durham, N. C.

Mrs. Selma Riley has returned to us and is now assigned to the Compensation and Liability Office.

Psychiatry

It is nice to have June Perry back in the Department after several months leave-of-absence.

Mrs. Betsy Hardie has joined the Psychophysiology Lab as a Research Technician.

Mrs. Sallyann Kolde is the new Psychology Secretary, replacing Sally Wallace.

Mary Jane Wells is now with us as an EEG Technician.

It was nice to have Mrs. Carolyn Roberts help out with the secretarial work temporarily.

Physical Therapy

We were sorry to have Carolyn Gibbs resign April 21. She has moved to Maryland where her husband, Dr. Robert Gibbs, will be with the National Institutes of Health in Bethesda.

This spring Governor Sanford appointed Eleanor Flanagan to a three-year term on the North Carolina State Examining Committee on Physical Therapy.

Spring has been workshop and convention time for us. On March 31, a majority of our staff attended the North Carolina Physical Therapy Association state meeting in Winston-Salem. Ellie Flanagan was program chairman. The next day the staff participated in a workshop on "Elements of Cooperative Home Care for the Chronically Ill," conducted under the auspices of the Physical Therapy Association and the North Carolina Heart Association. During the following week, April 1-6, Carolyn Burnett and Idell Landrum were at the University of Oklahoma for the American Physical Therapy Association-Office of Vocational Rehabilitation sponsored workshop on "The Learning Process and Methods of Instruction." In June Helen Kaiser, Ellie Flanagan, Idell Landrum, and Carolyn Burnett will go to San Francisco for the National American Physical Therapy Association conference. Miss Flanagan is Vice-chairman of the Section on Education and responsible for the program which will be on the "Correlation of Classroom and Clinical Teaching." Miss Burnett will present a three-part movie on "The Asthmatic Child" which has been developed in conjunction with the Pediatrics Department. Miss Kaiser and Miss Burnett will go on to workshops at Stanford University.
