

This 'n' That

NEW ARRIVALS

Dr. and Mrs. Ramon V. Canent, Jr., Pediatric Cardiology, a son, Ramon Randall, November 23.

Mrs. Susie Hunt, Audiologist, recently resigned, a son, January 12.

WEDDING BELLS

On December 22, Patsy Lindsay, Duke physical therapy student, was married in Duke University Chapel to John Kirkpatrick Thompson.

Also, on December 22, Eleanor Vaughn, Hospital Business Office, and Glenn Max Matthews were married in Fuller Memorial Presbyterian Church.

NEW FACES AND OLD

Private Medical Laboratory

Mrs. Betsy Brinson came to work as secretary January 2. She replaces Ann Yergan who left January 31 to have a baby. Betsy's husband, Oscar, entered Carolina law school February 1.

Surgery

Barbara Brantly replaces Drew Montague in Urology Clinic.

Welcome to two new interns in the Surgical Secretarial Pool: Doris Rogers and Louise Lineberry.

Peggy Gaston Wiseman, our new Audiologist, is a Vanderbilt graduate with an M.A. from the same institution.

We welcome a new assistant resident in plastic surgery, Dr. Thomas R. Giblin.

Alice Broughton, secretary in the Dean's Office, has left.

Pediatrics

Marie Keith joined the department December 17. She had worked previously in pathology.

Medical Record Library

We are happy to be in our new quarters and to welcome two new employees to the microfilm department: Joyce Cheek and Sandra Galbraith.

Outpatient Department

Welcome to some "new faces": Mrs. Joan Vanetta, interviewer, OPD registration; Mrs. Olivia Lloyd, OPD business office; and Mrs. Ruth Anne Moffatt, interviewer and assistant supervisor, OPD registration.

Psychiatry

Dr. James L. Elmore, Jr., reported in January as a new resident. He came to Durham from Memphis, Tennessee.

Patsy Patterson and Maxine Staley have rotated to psychiatry as secretarial interns.

Mrs. Annie Mae Elterich is our new receptionist in the PDC area. Mrs. Carolyn Barber and Mrs. Carolyn Roberts have joined the secretarial staff.

Physical Therapy

Graduation exercises for the 1961-62 class were held December 3 in the Old Trinity Room. Miss Kaiser and Dr. Frank Clippinger presented certificates to Shelah Duffy, Anona Estes, Katherine Le Guin, Sharon Noack, Pat Peinhardt, Betty Ramsey, Charlene Rotha, Frances Sawtelle, Ann Thompson, and David Vaughn. Prizes for the best paper went to Miss Le Guin; honorable mention to Mr. Vaughn.

After 17 months in this country as a foreign trainee in physical therapy at Duke, Barbara Burgin has returned to her home in Switzerland.

Duke Hospital
Durham, N. C.