

(This 'n' That cont. from page 7)

ON THE GO

Microbiology

At the November meeting of the Tri-City Medical Technologists Society, Boots Ashbrook, Dr. Conant's technician, was elected president for 1964.

Occupational Therapy

Mrs. Carolyn Brooks and Miss Bernice Belue attended the regional psychiatric occupational therapy seminar in Richmond, Virginia, January 30 and 31.

PLAUDITS

Recognition of the efforts of both Miss Helen Kaiser and Dr. Lenox Baker for their leadership in the physical therapy program was made by the alumni during the events of the 20th graduation anniversary on December 6. Miss Kaiser was presented with a letter of acknowledgment of contributions the alumni made to the Marsha Paulk Memorial Loan Fund in her honor. Dr. Baker was given a bronze plaque which will be placed beside the physical therapy classroom door.

During the American Academy of Dermatology meeting in Chicago, November 30 to December 5, Dr. Callaway's former residents gave him a testimonial dinner and presented him with a large silver tray, punch bowl, and ladle suitably inscribed and having the facsimile signatures of all former residents engraved on the punch bowl.

THE GOTHIC GORMET

A collection of recipes from nursing alumnae, Medical School and University faculty wives and employees.

This cookbook may be purchased from the Alumni Office or Hanes House for $2.00, or ordered for $2.25 (25¢ to cover mailing) from the following:

Cook Book
Alumni Office
Duke University
Durham, N. C.

Proceeds from sales will go to the Florence K. Wilson Scholarship Fund, Duke University School of Nursing.

Duke University Medical Center
Durham, North Carolina