

WEDDING BELLS

Linda L. Hawkins and David N. Laws were married February 15 in Roxboro. Linda is employed in the bookkeeping department of the hospital business office.

Dr. Charles Rackley, of the department of medicine, and Betsy Woodhall, of the nursing staff, were married in Durham, February 1.

Wedding bells will ring on April 11 for Christine von Arnim, physical therapist, and Dr. Howard K. Thompson, department of medicine.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. Gazie K. Ragep who were married March 10. Mrs. Gazie is the former Miss Doris Rogers, secretary to Dr. Ben Feather.

Sandra Grant, Dr. Aleya's secretary, is engaged.

NEW FACES AND OLD*Medicine*

Barbara Bain, a laboratory clinical nursing supervisor, has transferred from the nursing service to Dr. McIntosh's lab.

New technicians are Wayne Sidman Barber in Dr. Estes' lab, Lewis Edward Dixon in Dr. Saltzman's lab, Ann Fowler in Dr. Heyman's lab, and Bonita Louise Pitzer in Dr. Elder's lab.

Sarah Louise Parrish is now a laboratory assistant in Dr. McIntosh's lab.

Martha Paige Young is working as a secretary in MOPC for Mr. Dean. Mrs. LaRue Sawyer has recently joined the MPDC staff.

Outpatient Department

Mrs. Melba Houser formerly employed in MPDC insurance office is now secretary to Mr. James Mau. She replaced Mrs. Joyce Trout. Mrs. Trout is now secretary to Mr. Stanley Elwell. She replaced Mrs. Eloise Helms who was given a charm bracelet from the staff as a farewell gift.

Other new employees in this department are Miss Nancy Marshburn who replaced Miss Carol Bowman; Mrs. Margie Pedrick who replaced Miss Dot Ogburn; Mrs. Maudie Thompson and Mrs. Betty Olson.

Physical Therapy

We are pleased to welcome three physical therapists to our staff. Katherine LeGuin returned to Duke on February 1 after a year at Vanderbilt University Hospital. Also coming to us from Vanderbilt is Mrs. Gisela Hendley who originally hails from Germany. Mrs. Ann McCallum, a University of Kansas graduate replaced Conny Peake who had been on the staff for ten years.

Psychiatry

Dr. Lindsay A. Graham, former resident in psychiatry, is now at the Karolinska Institute in Stockholm, Sweden. He is the recipient of a NIMH Special Fellowship to study there.

We are enjoying the services of several new secretaries and technicians. They are: Mrs. Mattie Jones, Miss Becky Lemons, Mrs. Linda Hall, Mrs. Edna Bailey, Miss Ann Jackson,

Mrs. Nancy Grunert, and Miss Sandra Siffing.

Surgery

Dr. John Freese has finished his residency and is headed for Texas and private practice.

New secretaries are Betty O'Neal who replaced Ann Weems in the urology clinic, Wendy Pittman who is secretary to Drs. Bassett and McCollum in orthopedics, and Kathie Leathers who is now working in the surgical pool.

Personnel Department

Mr. Neil S. Bucklew has recently joined the Personnel Department as Assistant Director. Mr. Bucklew was graduated from the University of Missouri and has taken a year of additional work at Duke. His primary responsibility will be with position classification and salary control.

The Bucklews live at 9 Meadowbrook Drive. Mrs. Bucklew, also a Missouri graduate, is an instructor in Physical Education at Carr Junior High School.

PLAUDITS

Congratulations to Dr. Hilda Pope Willett and Dr. John R. Overman who have been promoted to full professorships in Microbiology.

OF SPECIAL NOTE

To all friends of the late Dr. Frank Engel, we recommend Dr. Bogdonoff's "An Appreciation," which appeared in Perspectives in Biology and Medicine, Vol. VII, Winter, 1964.

Duke University Medical Center
Durham, North Carolina